Report of Constitution Day Celebration

Date: 26.11.2022

On the occasion of Constitution Day the Institution in association with District Legal Services Authority, Chitradurga and Nehru Yuva Kendra, Chitradurga organised this event to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution on 26th November 2022. The programme began with the melodious invocation, with the colourful dress code by the students which was followed by the warm welcome speech delivered by Renuka, 2nd Year, 3 Years LL.B.

The Institution before organising Constitution Day celebration conducted Debate Competition to the students on the topic ‘The Reservation Provided for Education, Occupation and Political Field under the Constitution to be continued or not’ about 20 students actively participated in the debate competition. The result of the Competition is as follows.

I Prize	-	Harish Kumar	-	1 st Year, 3 Years LL.B
II Prize	-	Shamantha Nayaka-		1 st Year, 3 Years LL.B
III Price	-	Bhargav Sen	-	2 nd Year, 3 Years LL.B

To retreat the values enshrined in the Constitution, principal, guests, faculty and students joined reading the preamble of the Constitution. The entire gathering reaffirmed its commitment to the Indian Constitution by taking the pledge.

Hon’ble Jithendranath. C.S, I Additional Senior Civil Judge and JMFC, Chitradurga inaugurated the programme by lightening the lamp and delivered inaugural speech. He said that, Constitution should be amended without affecting basic structure of the constitution. After Second World War, it was decided that India should be independent from British colonialism. Hence constituent assemble was held in 1956. The Constitution of India contains 395 articles and 25 parts.

The Secretary of Saraswathi Education Society (R.) and Senior Advocate Smt. D.K. Sheela addressed the gathering and she said that people should behave in the right way and work in the right way by respecting the constitution.

Another Chief Guest Sri. Suhas. N, District Youth Officer, Nehru Yuva Kendra, Chitradurga while addressing the gathering said that youth should pay attention to the social development of villages. Sri. H. Hanumanthappa, Former Rajyasabha Member and President, Saraswathi Education Society (R.) presided over the programme and delivered presidential speech and said that everyone should act according to the wishes of the Constitution.

Prof. Dr. M.S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Prof. D.H. Nataraja, Administrator and Staff & Students were participated in this occasion. Around 300 students ere participated in this event.

Report of World AIDs Day

Date: 08.12.2022

The Institution had organised a programme in collaboration with Karnataka State AIDs Control Board, Bengaluru, District Administration, Zilla Panchayath, District Health and Family Welfare Department, District AIDs Control and Prevention Unit, NSS Unit, Youth Redcross Unit, Chitradurga. The programme based on the World AIDs Day and National Voluntary Blood Donation Day arranged a special lecture to share the need and importance of the blood and the life of a human being.

The programme was compared by Santosh. K, 2nd Year-3 Years LL.B student. It was began with the beautiful invocation sung by Shamanth, 1st Year-3 Years LL.B student which was followed by the welcome speech delivered by Keerthana Reddy, 2nd Year-3 Years LL.B student.

The introductory speech about the programme was delivered by Ashok, District Supervisor, District AIDs Control and Prevention Unit, Chitradurga. He gave the statistics of the AIDs patients all over the world. Where India stands in 3rd place and Karnataka stands in 16th position. In Chitradurga District 8175 AIDs patients have been detected so far. He also narrated the precautions to be taken to prevent the AIDs, which do not have any treatment.

The inauguration of the programme was laid by Dr. R. Ranganath, District Health Officer, Chitradurga and other dignitaries of the stage by watering the plant. In his inaugural speech, he narrated the abbreviated forms of AIDs and HIV and the difference between that is HIV is a virus and AIDs is an effect of such virus. One should always fight against HIV AIDs but not against the AIDs patients. He also stressed upon the theme of the AIDs Day 2022 equalise, which emphasis eliminating the inequalities that have slowed the fight against the disease.

The programme was further followed by honouring the people who donated their blood, highest number of times in the year 2022.

For the awareness about the AIDs, HIV and Blood Donation the essay competition was been conducted in the college campus for the students on the topic ‘Role of Youth in Prevention of HIV AIDs’ dated 06.12.2022. Around 17 students were participated in the essay competition. In this occasion the prize distribution for the essay competition was made and the list is as under.

I Prize	-	Supritha. M.S	-	2 nd Year- 3 Years LL.B
II Prize	-	Shamanth	-	1 st Year- 3 Years LL.B
III Prize	-	Bhoomika. G	-	2 nd Year- 5 Years B.A LL.B

The presidential remark was given by Shri. H. Hanumanthappa, President, Saraswathi Education Society (R.), Chitradurga. He said India being a part of WHO need to fulfil the commitment to create awareness regarding blood donation as well as prevention of AIDs.

A special lecture by Dr. Roopashri, District Surgeon, ART Centre, District Hospital, Chitradurga was delivered where she concentrated on ‘Youth and HIV- an overview of HIV scenario’. She said prevention is better than cure, where the Government choose the youth to create awareness regarding HIV and AIDs. Getting HIV tests is a must and for this there is a separate HIV Act which was enforced in the year 2017 to give surety of confidentiality. She also narrated the basic facts on HIV, roots of spread of HIV, signs and symptoms of AIDs. ART stands for Anti Retro Viral therapy and the aims and objectives of this unit. She concluded by saying that the youth should be more aware regarding this disease because there is no treatment for this disease.

The programme was concluded by vote of thanks delivered by Chethana, 2nd Year- 5 Years B.A LL.B.

Date: 29.01.2023

As the Eco Club is the part of the Institution it strives to spread awareness among the students about the various issues that are being faced by our planet regarding our environment and to foster and eco-friendly environment in the college campus.

The Eco Club will empower students to participate and take up meaningful environmental activities and projects. It is a forum through which students can reach out to influence, engage different communities to promote sound environmental behaviour.

The Institution conducted a cleaning drive on 29th January 2023 in Chitradurga District Court complex in association with Nehru Yuva Kendra, Chitradurga and District Legal Services Authority, Chitradurga. This activity taught everybody that all work is equally important. The team work and unity was the mantra for the day as the students went about cleaning, sweeping and swabbing. This was an awareness created to public about the Swacch Bharath Abhiyaan and also motivated them for the same.

The students of Eco Club cleaned in and around the District Court under the able guidance of Dr. N.D. Gowda, Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. The students spent nearly two hours in the Court Complex collecting waste from every nook and corner, and finally it made a large heap which they also brought in to the notice of the workers who works responsible to clean the Court Complex.

The plantation drive programme was also been organised by Hon'ble Jithendranath. C.S, I Additional Senior Civil Judge and JMFC, Chitradurga and Hon'ble Girish B, Member Secretary, District Legal Services Authority, Chitradurga and other Judges took part in this plantation drive. Saraswathi Law College Principal Prof. Dr. M.S. Sudhadevi and Administrator Prof. D.H. Nataraja, faculty members and around 70 students witnessed the programme.

Inside the Court Complex badly dumped vehicles were assorted and maintained cleanliness. After the cleaning the garden watering was also made to the plants. In the end all the participants felt and immense sense of achievement when the work was looked attract work with admiration in their eyes and pride in their hearts. The refreshment was provided to all the participants which was sponsored by Nehru Yuva Kendra, Chitradurga.

Hon'ble Jithendranath. C.S, I Additional Senior Civil Judge and JMFC, Chitradurga and Hon'ble Girish B, Member Secretary, District Legal Services Authority, Chitradurga and other Judges took part in this plantation drive

Report of Training Programme about Electoral Process

Date: 15.02.2023

The Election Commission of Karnataka State had organized the Training Programme regarding Electoral Process on 10.05.2023. The main object of this programme was to increase voters registration and voting to make the democracy more powerful.

Prior to State Legislative Assembly Election this Training Programme was made for providing voter education, spreading voter awareness and promoting voter literacy. To equip the public with basic knowledge related to the electoral process Electronic Voting Machine (EVM) was brought to the institution and training was given to the staff and students regarding how to operate EVM successfully.

The primary goal is to build a truly participative democracy in India by encouraging all eligible citizens to vote and make an informed decision during the election.

Voter education can also be used to increase the transparency of the electoral process at the same time that it build support for to integrity of the elections. Voters must also understand how to vote on election day, or risk missing the opportunity, having their ballot disqualified for being improperly marked or facing another issue that restricts or eliminates their ability to participate. Elections cannot be genuinely democratic unless voters understand the differences among the contestants. So that they can cast an informed vote. With the above objectives Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation programme, better known as SVEEP had organized the training programme regarding electoral process.

Sri. Surendra, Booth Level Officer and other personnel of Election Commission educating to the Staff, Students and also public by demonstrating electoral voting machine

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

Karnataka State Law University was established in the State of Karnataka in 2008, with the avowed purpose of providing quality legal education. It is only one of its kind and is the single largest Law University in the country, affording 108 law colleges including its own Law School at the main campus in Hubballi. It is making all efforts to professionally orient students by including appropriate components for the promotion of legal education in Karnataka.

The vision of the University is: "To transform Karnataka State into a legally conscious society, by providing quality legal education that is professionally competent and socially relevant so as to realize the constitutional primordial goal of social, economic and political justice and secure human rights to every citizen." In this endeavor, to promote the culture of law and justice in the individuals of state, non-state organisations and every individual by providing affirmational education, training and legal services. Above all, inculcate in everyone a spirit of high moral and human values." In this endeavor, to realize the vision for excellence in professional legal education and research, the University is putting in arduous efforts through academic and extension activities.

In this direction, the Law University is organising a Two Day National Conference at five different zones with 6 collaborating law colleges of that zone. The following institutions are identified as collaborative institutions for Bangalore Zone -2:

1. Ramajiah College of Law, Bangalore.
2. Saravathi Law College, Chitradurga
3. Vidyodaya Law College, Tumakuru
4. Bangalore Law College, Bangalore

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Constitution is an organic document summarizing a body of fundamental principles and the interests which the citizens of a State. The Constitution of India is the supreme law of the land and has always adapted itself to meet the needs of the society at all times. Therefore, it has always been an instrument of social transformation. The fundamental rights enshrined in the Constitution guarantee basic rights and fundamental freedoms to all. When it comes to unenumerated rights they are nothing but basic rights inferred from other rights, that are implied within the framework of the Constitution. Though the proactive role of the judiciary, they are given wide interpretation and upon different areas relate to different dimensions of human rights jurisprudence.

In this context, Karnataka State Law University is organising a Two-Day National Conference on Relevance of Unenumerated Rights Within the Constitutional Framework, which will provide a platform for participants and delegates to share their views and thoughts for the enhancement of knowledge in law. It will enable the academicians, jurists, legal practitioners, social scientists and policymakers to understand and analyse the changing scenario of constitutional jurisprudence on unenumerated rights.
