Report of Constitution Day Celebration

Date: 26.11.2022

On the occasion of Constitution Day the Institution in association with District Legal Services Authority, Chitradurga and Nehru Yuva Kendra, Chitradurga organised this event to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution on 26th November 2022. The programme began with the melodious invocation, with the colourful dress code by the students which was followed by the warm welcome speech delivered by Renuka, 2nd Year, 3 Years LL.B.

The Institution before organising Constitution Day celebration conducted Debate Competition to the students on the topic ‘The Reservation Provided for Education, Occupation and Political Field under the Constitution to be continued or not’ about 20 students actively participated in the debate competition. The result of the Competition is as follows.

I Prize	-	Harish Kumar	-	1 st Year, 3 Years LL.B
II Prize	-	Shamantha Nayaka-		1 st Year, 3 Years LL.B
III Price	-	Bhargav Sen	-	2 nd Year, 3 Years LL.B

To retreat the values enshrined in the Constitution, principal, guests, faculty and students joined reading the preamble of the Constitution. The entire gathering reaffirmed its commitment to the Indian Constitution by taking the pledge.

Hon’ble Jithendranath. C.S, I Additional Senior Civil Judge and JMFC, Chitradurga inaugurated the programme by lightening the lamp and delivered inaugural speech. He said that, Constitution should be amended without affecting basic structure of the constitution. After Second World War, it was decided that India should be independent from British colonialism. Hence constituent assemble was held in 1956. The Constitution of India contains 395 articles and 25 parts.

The Secretary of Saraswathi Education Society (R.) and Senior Advocate Smt. D.K. Sheela addressed the gathering and she said that people should behave in the right way and work in the right way by respecting the constitution.

Another Chief Guest Sri. Suhas. N, District Youth Officer, Nehru Yuva Kendra, Chitradurga while addressing the gathering said that youth should pay attention to the social development of villages. Sri. H. Hanumanthappa, Former Rajyasabha Member and President, Saraswathi Education Society (R.) presided over the programme and delivered presidential speech and said that everyone should act according to the wishes of the Constitution.

Prof. Dr. M.S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Prof. D.H. Nataraja, Administrator and Staff & Students were participated in this occasion. Around 300 students ere participated in this event.

Report of Kannada Rajyothsava Programme

Date: 30.11.2022

The Institution organised a meaningful programme to commemorate Kannada Rajyothsava on the 30th of November 2022. The programme began with the Mass National Anthem after which Shri. P.C. Murugeshappa, Physical Education Director, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga welcomed the gathering and expressed the glory and grandeur of Karnataka and Kannada Language.

A floral tribute was made to Kannada Mathe Photo by Principal, Administrator, Teaching Staff and few Students. A group of students rendered 'Naada Geethe' besides all others gave a Corus.

Respected Principal Prof. Dr. M.S. Sudhadevi highlighted that, this was the day in 1956 when all Kannada language speaking regions and south western India were merged to form the state of Karnataka. This day is considered the most special day for all the Kannada people in Karnataka, India as well as outside the India. She also expressed that the preservation, research and development of culture is impossible without studying the language code of the nation. Language is crucial, as it is not only functions as a communication device but also contains irreplaceable cultural heritage, knowledge and traditions. The survival of language means the survival of a way of life.

Finally the programme was concluded with the vote of thanks and students were disbursed. Around 300 students were participated in the programme.

Date: 29.12.2022

To uphold linguistic integrity diversity the Institution celebrated the legendary poets birth anniversary laureate Kuvempu, Vishwamaanava Day on 29th December 2022. It was also celebrated in view to create a scientific temperament among youngsters. Dr. G.N. Mallikarjunappa, Retd. Principal and Economic Analyst inaugurated the official celebration at the programme which was organized by Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga jointly with Karnataka State Science Council, Bengaluru and Karnataka State Science Council, District Committee, Chitradurga.

The presidential remark was given by H.S.T. Swamy, Treasurer, Karnataka State Vignana Parishat, Bengaluru. Stressed on the need for the current generation to read books which go beyond constraints of time and age. He said that most of Kuvempu works focused on the true meaning of life and human values. A society divided on the basis of caste, creed and financial and social factors is diseased, it needs to be treated. It was also pointed out that Kuvempu was a unique poet who encouraged education. Beliefs are fine, but not a superstitious beliefs. He was a spiritual being; a poet who severally opposed superstitious beliefs.

Speaking on the occasion Dr. G.N. Mallikarjunappa, Retd. Principal and Economic Analyst said that, the credit for taking Kannada to National and International Levels should go to Kuvempu. Pointing out that Kuvempu is Inaugural one of the Kannada poets, it is a math of pride that Rashtra Kavi belong to Shivamogga. The title Rashtrakavi for his literary works that have been globally acknowledged. The programme was concluded by vote of thanks delivered by P.C. Report of National Youth Day

Swacch Bharath Abhiyan:

On the occasion of National Youth Day, also known as Swamy Vivekananda Jayanti, is celebrated in the Institution on 12th January 2023 to commemorate the birth anniversary of Swamy Vivekananda, one of India's most influential, spiritual leaders and thinkers.

The Institution has organised Swacch Bharath Abhiyan in the college campus and adopt one of the life lessons that Swamy Vivekananda had taught us. "The more we come out and do good to others, the more our hearts will be purified". Swamy Vivekananda believed that the path to self-purification is through helping others. He encouraged people to engage in selfless service and to work towards the betterment of society. He taught that the more we serve others, the more we will be able to purify our hearts and minds. With this view principal, NSS unit, teaching and non-teaching staff along with the students put their hands together to clean in and around the college campus with the good service motive.

Report of Awareness Programme on the occasion of National Women's Day

Date: 14.02.2023

An awareness and sensitization program for high school students on Domestic Violence, Child Marriage POCSO Act, was organized by Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga in collaboration with Chinmuladri High School on Tuesday at 2.30 PM.

To commemorate the birth anniversary of Sarojini Naidu popularly known as Nightingale of India the National Women's day was celebrated to remember the unparalleled contribution made by her for establishing women's rights in the patriarchal Indian society. The day strives to encourage gender equality. On this occasion the Institution had organized this awareness program to educate the children and equip them with knowledge and life skills required to protect themselves from undesirable situation.

The program was compared by Sir. P.C. Murugesappa, Physical Director, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. K. Santhosh, 2nd Year LL.B Student welcomed all the dignitaries. Dr.N.D. Gowda, Assistant professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga gave a brief about the domestic abuse and covered the Domestic Violence Act. He said that in India, 30% of women have experienced domestic violence at least once from when they were aged 15, and around 4% of ever-pregnant women have experienced spousal violence during pregnancy. He also assisted the students to seek Redressal for the domestic violence which will be taken place at home with the Helpline: 1098.

Prof. Dr. M.S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga she spoke about the effects of Child Marriage and POCSO Act. The child doesn't have sexual autonomy. Thus, under the POCSO the spouse of a person below the age of 18 can be penalized. In India child marriages still take place in various regions usual in rural and semi urban areas. Due to improper vigilance and manifestation of the social norms it is still persisting. It is also the sexual abuse of a married women who is under the age of 18, in few Child Marriages the minor girls are not yet attained the age of maturity.

Murali. H. Kannada Teacher, Chinmaladri National High School, Chitradurga Children are supremely important national assets, require special attention and protection against all sorts of ill-treatment and exploitation, among these the prominent is child marriage which is found the most in India. Despite having law against child marriage for the last more than 90 years, child marriage is an acrid reality in our country

The program was concluded by vote of thanks delivered by Sir. P.C. Murugeshappa, Physical Director, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga.

Report of Awareness Programme on the occasion of National Sports Day
Date: 29.08.2023

The National Sports Day of India was celebrated in Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. In tribute to the Legendary Hockey Player Major Dhyan Chand.

This programme was organised with the aim to create awareness about the significance of this day. The programme with the welcome speech which was followed by an introductory speech by Sri. P.C. Murugesappa, Physical Education Director where he told the students about the importance of ‘Sports’ and the relevance of National Sports Day. This day marks the birth anniversary of Major Dhyan Chand who was born on this day.

Prof. Dr. M.S. Sudhadevi, Principal of the Institution in her presidential remark said that sports are important for the physical and mental well being of humans. Individuals who play sports remain healthy. India has produced many sportive legends like P.T. Usha, also known as Udanpari, Sachin Tendulkar, also known as Master Blaster and Major Dhyan Chand, also known as ‘Hockey Wizard’ and also “the magician”.

She also said that Major Dhyan Chand was a great hockey player. If a ball struck in his stick, it scored a goal. This was the reason that once his stick was broken during a match to check whether the stick had any magnet or something else inside it or not. He was part of the three time Olympic Gold Medalist Indian Hockey team. He had scored more than four hundred international goals in his career from 1926-1948 while scoring nearly one thousand goals in his entire career. In a bid to pay tribute to such a legendary player his birthday is celebrated as the National Sports Day.

Dr. N.D. Gowda, Dr. D.B. Ravikumar, Assistant Professors and Smt. R.S. Preethi, Lecturer were present in the occasion. Around 60 students were participated on this occasion. The programme was concluded by the vote of thanks delivered by P.C. Murugesappa, Physical Education Director.
