Child rights are Human rights that also recognise the special needs for care and protection of minors. All children have these rights, regardless of religion, race, ethnicity, gender or cultural background. With the object to create awareness and educate the students and staff on the eve of National Girl Child Rights Day which was celebrated on every year of 24th January this programme was conducted to sensitize about the child rights and establish a society where people are aware and protect their rights, this programme was organised in Government High school, Agasanakallu, Chitradurga.

The programme was compared by Fayaz. K., Physical Education Teacher which was started with a beautiful Invocation sung by the students of Government High school, Agasanakallu, which was followed by welcome speech delivered by Smt. Manjula. M. R, Social teacher. The programme was inaugurated through watering the plants by Sri Nataraj D. H, Administrator, Saraswathi Education Society, Chitradurga and other guests.

There after the inaugural speech was delivered by Sri Nataraj D. H. He focused on Children rights and said that many children are out of school, lack access to health care and suffer violence and exploitation. To ensure that all children survive, thrive and learn and are protected, Government need to step up efforts to realise the rights of all children.

Later another key speaker Dr. N. D. Gowda, Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga while addressing the gathering he discussed about the Consumer Protection and rights pertaining to it like Right to Choose, Right to Informed, Right to Safety and Right to Complain. As children are also consumer, they were awoken about their rights and guided for the claims. They can avoid Unfair Trade Practices and do not allow the seller to charge higher value than the cost of that product or services. He concluded the talk by highlighting the seller responsibilities.

Child sexual abuse is a major concern that is increasing day by day in India and to fight child sexual abuse, it is important that we all take responsibility in our own various ways to combat the menace. To avoid the children to be victimized by the people of their own surroundings the final year students of Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga gave awareness about the Good touch and Bad touch and also THE POCSO Act.

Then Smt. Harsha S M, Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga as a programme coordinator gave an awareness about the very basic and fundamental rights that they lacked knowledge, through the moral stories.

The presidential remarks was been given by Sri. Thippeswamy, Head Master, GHS, Agasanakallu. Firstly, children were explained about the violations done by the society to suppress a child growth according to their will by sharing his experience. They were further informed about their moral duties towards such rights.

The programme was concluded by Vote of Thank s delivered by Asha. P. B., Maths teacher, Agasanakallu.

Report of Awareness Programme on World Consumer Rights Day- 2022

Date:15.03.2022

Every year of 15th March as World Consumer Rights Day with a specific theme. The Programme was compared by Sri. P.C. Murugesappa, Physical Education Director, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga is started by quoting the theme of 2022 i.e., “Fair Digital Finance”.

The Programme was celebrated on 15.03.2022 at 10:30 a.m. in Saraswathi Law College, Silver Jubilee Hall. The Programme began with Melodious Prayer sung by Supreetha N.S, 1st Year 3 Years LL.B. There after the welcome speech was delivered by Dr. Ravikumar D.B. Assistant Professor before he delivered a welcome speech he gave a brief about the history of celebration of this day. President John F. Kennedy was the driving force behind the Criterion of World Consumer Rights Day. He addressed the United States Congress on March 15th 1962, explicitly addressed in the topic of Consumer Rights. World Consumer Rights Day was celebrated first time in 1983. With this small introduction he delivered warm welcome speech.

The Programme was inaugurated through watering to the plant by Dr. M. Somashekharappa, Principal, R.L. Law College, Davanagere and other dignitaries on the dias. It was followed by the inaugural speech delivered by Dr. M. Somashekharappa. He convincingly conveyed a message to all the students and mentioned the significance of the Consumer Protection Act, 2019. He gave a details description of the Act which aims to provide consumer with effective safeguards against different types of exploitation such as defective goods, deficiency in services and unfair trade practices. He concluded by stating the RBI initiatives for Consumer Protection i.e., Consumer Education with respective customer rights, ombudsman, complaint management system, grievance, redress mechanism etc.,

Prof. D.H. Nataraja, Administrator, Saraswathi Education Society, Chitradurga highlighted the theme “Fair Digital Finance”. Digital Finance brings new opportunities-but also new risks that can led to unfair outcomes for consumers. Digital Finance can increase the likelihood that the most vulnerable are left behind. He concluded by giving tips that all the products contain the contents on the pack which is to be observed by the consumer and should contact toll free number given on the pack for defects.

Prof. Dr. M.S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga, had presided in the programme. She said that it is celebrated to reassert every customer's rights to know the price, quality, purity and standards of each product in all fair senses. This day is used as a means of raising awareness about consumer rights and needs. It provides an opportunity for individuals to highlight the importance of the customer and need to make every customer more aware of their rights and responsibilities. She concluded by saying that digital Financial Services can empower consumers, everywhere. To achieve this, digital Financial Services must be inclusive, safe, data protected and private and sustainable.

The programme ended with the vote of thanks delivered by Kum. Manjula. A, English Lecturer, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga.

Around 100 students had attended the programme and it was Co-ordinated by Dr. Ravikumar D.B. Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga.

Report of Celebration of World Earth Day

Date: 22.04.2022

The Institution celebrated World Earth Day on April 22, 2022 under the theme, 'Invest in Our Planet', to under- the magnitude of the problem.

The day started with beautiful message where students were reminded to certain actions towards safe earth. The Principal, Administrator and Students and Staff took part in this endeavour and initiative. Each one of them took a pledge to save Mother Earth by doing simple doable actions. Our continuing efforts in our daily life will make this beautiful planet thrive.

To emphasis the importance of water shortage, the students pasted water saving cautions near water tanks, water taps, sink, etc., and discussed why and how they should, could and would save water.

The announced the Earth hour and took on the initiative to paste cautions near switch board to switch off electric lights and fans before they leave that place and use natural lights. They made posters and campaign vigorously to motivate all the students. This is how the Institution celebrated World Earth Day by creating awareness and conserving our precious resources.

Report of Legal Awareness Programme on ‘Empowerment of Women and Children Right’

Date: 28.07.2022

Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga under Legal Aid Cell in association with Govt. Post Metric BCM Girls Hostel, Govt. Post Metric Professional Courses BCM Girls Hostel and Govt. Pre Metric BCM Girls Hostel, Chitradurga had organised Awareness Programme on ‘Empowerment of Women and Children Right’ on 28.07.2022 as per the order of Karnataka Government dated 30.05.2022 to conduct legal literacy programme under the title ‘Vidyarthigalige Spoorthiya Nade’ (Inspire the students towards law) for the students.

The programme was began with the inauguration through watering to the plant by Smt. Harsha. S.M, Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga and Deepa Rani. A.M, Sakheena. B and Anitha. D.S, Hostel Wardens. It was followed by the welcome speech delivered by Deepa Rani. A.M, Warden.

The aim of the programme was to create an awareness on ‘Women and Children Right’. Smt. Harsha. S.M, Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga while addressing the gathering said that empowerment in the view of the women is necessary because the women population contributes more than 49% of the nation. The empowerment of women in the view of the family, because a women is like a captain of the ship and she is having the responsibility and leading the family, balancing the economic condition of the family and also having the responsibility of educating the children also.

She also said that, empowerment of children is also necessary in the view of the progress of the nation, because they are the future citizen of the country. The future of the nation depends on the well being of the children. If they are physically and mentally fit, then only they can contribute for the lending of the nation.

She also stressed that the empowerment of women and children is also refers to the social and economic concept which contributes the leading factors in the progress of any nation. India is basically agriculture country and empowerment of women and children is automatically takes the highest importance. In rural sector, even though women are surrounded by blind belief, family clashes, sexual harassment even from family members, domestic violence still women become the captain of the family. In urban sector working men constituted 21% of the population and comparing to other nations it is comparatively less. The women is slowly acquiring the dominant position in all fields including education, medical, science, technology, art and including in defence forces also. But still she has to lead and struggle in male dominant society and has to prove her ability.

She also highlighted several laws passed by Karnataka Government like child labour, bonded labour, dowry act, prohibition of child marriage and so on to stop the exploitation on women as well as children. The Karnataka Government had encouraged to establish 'Stree Shakthi Groups' and established the government schools in all villages to encourage education rural sectors and also started the schemes such as 'cooly inda shaalege' to stop school dropouts and attract the children towards school. She concluded her speech by saying few provisions under criminal law for the protection of women and children.

The programme was concluded by the vote of thanks delivered by Smt. Anitha. D.S, Warden. Around 300 students and staff were participated.
