Swacch Bharath Abhiyaan was organized with gaiety and enthusiasm on the auspicious occasion of 153rd Birth Anniversary of Father of the Nation, Mahathma Gandhi and also part of NSS and Eco Club our college students and staff cleaned the college area thereby supporting Swacch Bharath Abhiyan.

Swacch Bharath Diwas or Swacchatha Diwas is observed every year on October 2nd on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanthi during which students and staff alike can be seen taking part in performing tasks ranging from sweeping to garbage collection as part of the nationwide cleanliness drive. As aware esteemed Narendra Modi had called for Karyanjali of Cleanliness that is 'Swacchatha hi Seva Abhiyaan'. The Institution organized cleanliness drive.

The Faculty and Staff of the Institution did Swacch Bharath in the campus

SWACHHATA SAMACHAR

Volume 3 | Issue 8 | October 2023

“ I am also happy that many programmes related to cleanliness have been planned across the country on the occasion of Gandhi Jayanti. The ‘Swachhata Hi Seva Abhiyan’ is going on with great enthusiasm in all the offices of the Central Government...You too should take out time and help in this campaign related to cleanliness. You can also join this cleanliness campaign in your street, or neighborhood...or at a park, river, lake or any other public place and cleanliness must be undertaken wherever an Amrit Sarovar has been built.

This Karyanjali of cleanliness itself will be the true tribute to Gandhiji.

Report of One Day Training Programme to Para Legal Voluntaries on the occasion of National Legal Services Day

Date: 09.11.2023

National Legal Services Day is observed every year on 9th November to commemorate the commencement of Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 which came in to force on 9th November 1995.

Saraswathi Law College in association with Karnataka State Legal Services Authority, Bengaluru, District Legal Services Authority, Chitradurga and District Advocates Association, Chitradurga had organized One Day Training Programme to Para Legal Voluntaries on the occasion of National Legal Services Day in Zilla Panchayat Auditorium, Chitradurga to appraise people about the availability of free legal aid.

“National Environmental Awareness and Education Act of 2008”

Declared the month of November as National Environmental Awareness Month to promote awareness. Especially among the youth on the importance of protecting the environment for sustainable growth

This National Legal Services Day was began with plantation drive by Smt. B.S. Rekha, Principal and District Judge and President, District Legal Services Authority, Chitradurga, Shri. Vijay. M, Member Secretary, District Legal Services Authority, Chitradurga and other dignitaries.

Thereafter, the programme was carried in the Zilla Panchayat Auditorium it gave a quick start on the arrival of Judges and other guests with the patriotic invocation that is the State Anthem 'Jaya Bharatha Jananiya Thanujathe' song.

The introductory speech was delivered by Shri. Vijay. M, Member Secretary, District Legal Services Authority, Chitradurga. He said the National Legal Services Authority has been constituted under the Legal Services Authorities Act 1987 to provide free legal aid services to the weaker sections of the society and to organize Lok Adalath for amicable settlements of disputes. He also focused on the history of legal aid movement in India and it's development and present status in brief. The welcome speech was delivered by Shri. Murthy, Advocate, Chitradurga. It was followed by inauguration through pouring water to the plant for the symbol of environment month. The inaugural address was delivered by Smt. B.S. Rekha, Principal and District Judge and President, District

Legal Services Authority, Chitradurga. She said that, main aims of the occasion is to providing legal relief to the weaker sections of the society. The legal services include any advice, counsel or assistance involving law related matters that helps the people navigate the legal system and protect their rights.

Shri. K.S. Vijay, Advocate, Chitradurga National Legal Services Authority is keen to develop and promote a culture of consolation instead of litigation in the country so that the citizens of this country prefers to reduce their disputes and differences across the table in the spirit of goodwill and brotherhood. It also wishes to ensure that even the weakest amongst the weak in the country does not suffer injustice arising out of any abrasive action on the part of state or private person.

Prof. Dr. M.S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga in her presidential speech focused on the objectives of legal services that is to provide free and competent legal services to eligible persons to organize Lok Adalath for amicable settlements of disputes and to create legal awareness about the rights of weaker and marginalized sections of the society.

ಕಾನೂನು ಸೇವೆಗಳ ಪ್ರಾಧಿಕಾರ ಅಧ್ಯಕ್ಷೆ ರೇಖಾ ಕಾನೂನು ಸ್ವಯಂಸೇವಕರಾಗಿ

ಚಿತ್ರದುರ್ಗ: ಕಾನೂನು ಸುವ್ಯವಸ್ಥೆ ಕಾಪಾಡುವ ನಿಟ್ಟಲ್ಲಿ ಪ್ರತಿ ಮನೆಯಲ್ಲಿಯೂ, ಪ್ರತಿಯೊಬ್ಬರೂ ಆರಕಾಲಿಕ ಕಾನೂನು ಸ್ವಯಂ ಸೇವಕರಾಗಬೇಕೆಂದು ಪ್ರಧಾನ ಜಿಲ್ಲಾ ಮತ್ತು ಸತ್ರ ನ್ಯಾಯಾಶರು ಹಾಗೂ ಜಿಲ್ಲಾ ಕಾನೂನು ಸೇವೆಗಳ ಪ್ರಾಧಿಕಾರದ ಅಧ್ಯಕ್ಷರಾದ ಬಿ.ಎಸ್.ರೇಖಾ ಅವರು ಹೇಳಿದರು.

ರಾಜ್ಯ ಕಾನೂನು ಸೇವೆಗಳ ಪ್ರಾಧಿಕಾರ, ಜಿಲ್ಲಾ ಕಾನೂನು ಸೇವೆಗಳ ಪ್ರಾಧಿಕಾರ, ವಕೀಲರ ಸಂಘ, ಸರಸ್ವತಿ ಕಾನೂನು ಕಾಲೇಜು ಇವರ ಸಂಯುಕ್ತಾಶ್ರಯದಲ್ಲಿ ಕಾನೂನು ಸೇವೆಗಳ ದಿನಾಚರಣೆ ಮತ್ತು ಅದರ ಅಂಗವಾಗಿ ಆರಕಾಲಿಕ ಕಾನೂನು ಸ್ವಯಂ ಸೇವಕರಿಗೆ ನಗರದ ಜಿ.ಪಂ. ಸಭಾಂಗಣದಲ್ಲಿ ಗುರುವಾರ ಹಮ್ಮಿಕೊಂಡಿದ್ದ ತರಬೇತಿ ಕಾರ್ಯಕ್ರಮ ಉದ್ಘಾಟಿಸಿ ಮಾತನಾಡಿದ ಅವರು, ಆರಕಾಲಿಕ ಕಾನೂನು ಸ್ವಯಂ ಸೇವಕರು ಯಾವುದಾದರೂ ಸಮಸ್ಯೆ ಕಂಡು ಬಂದ ತಕ್ಷಣ ಸಂಬಂಧಪಟ್ಟ ಇಲಾಖೆಗೆ ವಿಷಯ ತಿಳಿಸುವ ಕೆಲಸ ಮಾಡಬೇಕು ಎಂದರು.

ಅನ್ಯಾಯದ ವಿರುದ್ಧ ಧೈರ್ಯವಾಗಿ ಮಾತನಾಡಬೇಕು. ಧೈರ್ಯವಾಗಿ ಮಾತನಾಡಿದಾಗ ಮಾತ್ರ ನ್ಯಾಯ ಒದಗಿಸಲು ಸಾಧ್ಯವಿದೆ. ಅನ್ಯಾಯಕ್ಕೆ ನ್ಯಾಯ ಒದಗಿಸುವ ಕೆಲಸವನ್ನು ನಾವೆಲ್ಲರೂ ಮಾಡಬೇಕಿದೆ. ಎಲ್ಲಿಯಾದರೂ ಅನ್ಯಾಯ ಕಂಡಾಗ, ಮತ್ತೊಬ್ಬರಿಗೆ ನಮ್ಮ ಸಹಾಯ ಬೇಕಾದ ಸಂದರ್ಭದಲ್ಲಿ ನಾವುಗಳು ಸಹಾಯ ಮಾಡುವ ಮನಸ್ಸಿತಿ ಬೆಳೆಸಿಕೊಳ್ಳಬೇಕು ಎಂದು ಕಿವಿಮಾತು ಹೇಳಿದರು.

ಕಾನೂನು ಅನುಷ್ಠಾನ ಮಾಡುವುದಕ್ಕೆ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಗಳು ಇವೆ. ಸಾರ್ವಜನಿಕರಾಗಿ ನಾವುಗಳು ನಮ್ಮ ಕರ್ತವ್ಯವನ್ನು ಸರಿಯಾಗಿ ಮಾಡಬೇಕಿದೆ. ಪ್ರತಿಯೊಬ್ಬರಿಗೂ ನ್ಯಾಯ ಸಿಗಬೇಕು ಎಂಬುದು

ಬಾಲ್ಯವಿವಾಹ ಪ್ರಕರಣ ಸೇರಿದಂತೆ ಇನ್ನಿತರೆ ಪ್ರಕರಣಗಳು ಕಂಡು ಬಂದಾಗ ಸಂಬಂಧಪಟ್ಟ ಸೂಕ್ತ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಗೆ ವರದಿ ಮಾಡಬೇಕು. ಆದರೆ ಯಾರು ಸಹ ಇದನ್ನು ವರದಿ ಮಾಡುವುದಿಲ್ಲ. ಈ ಮನಸ್ಸಿತ್ತಿಯನ್ನು ಬಿಡಬೇಕು. ಇದು ನಮ್ಮ ಕರ್ತವ್ಯ ಎಂದು ತಿಳಿದುಕೊಳ್ಳಬೇಕು.

■ ಬಿ.ಎಸ್.ರೇಖಾ, ನ್ಯಾಯಾಧೀಶೆ

ಕಾನೂನಿನ ಮೂಲ ಉದ್ದೇಶವಾಗಿದೆ. ನ್ಯಾಯ ಸಿಗುವುದಕ್ಕೆ ನಾವು ಸಹಕಾರಿಯಾಗಬೇಕು ಎಂದು ಹೇಳಿದರು.

ಜಿಲ್ಲಾ ಕಾನೂನು ಸೇವೆಗಳ ಪ್ರಾಧಿಕಾರ ಸದಸ್ಯ ಕಾರ್ಯದರ್ಶಿ ಎಂ.ವಿಜಯ್ ಮಾತನಾಡಿ, ಕಾನೂನು ಸೇವೆಗಳ ಪ್ರಾಧಿಕಾರದ ಕಾಯ್ದೆ ಅನುಷ್ಠಾನ ಮಾಡಿದ ದಿನವನ್ನೇ ಕಾನೂನು ಸೇವೆಗಳ ದಿನ ಆಚರಣೆ ಮಾಡಲಾಗುತ್ತಿದೆ. ಜಿಲ್ಲಾಡಳಿತಕ್ಕಿಂತ ಮುಂಚಿತವಾಗಿ ಜಿಲ್ಲಾ ಕಾನೂನು ಸೇವೆಗಳ ಪ್ರಾಧಿಕಾರಕ್ಕೆ ಸಾರ್ವಜನಿಕರು ತಮ್ಮ ಕುಂದುಕೊರತೆಗಳಿಗೆ ಸಂಬಂಧಪಟ್ಟಂತೆ ಅರ್ಜಿಗಳನ್ನು ಸಲ್ಲಿಸುತ್ತಿದ್ದಾರೆ. ಇದು ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಯ ಮಹತ್ವವನ್ನು ತೋರಿಸುತ್ತಿದೆ ಎಂದರು.

Report of Karnataka Rajyothsava

Date: 29.11.2023

The Institution organized Kannada Rajyothsava on 29th November, 2023. It highlighted the love and pride for the State and its Language. The programme was compared by P.C. Murugeshappa, Physical Education Director.

The students and staff depicted the proud heritage of Kannada Culture by singing the State Anthem portraying the attire of great poets and personalities of Karnataka.

The programme began with the welcoming of the guests by B. Vijay, LL.B Final Year student. Dr. C.T. Jayanna, Associate Professor, SJM Women's College, Chitradurga, Prof. Dr. M.S. Sudhadevi, Principal and other dignitaries on the dais performed the Pushpanjali and Offered flowers to Bhuvaneshwari, as a mark of respect. This was followed by ceremonial lighting of the lamp which signified the beginning of the event.

Introduction was the guest was made by Karibasappa of Final Year LL.B student. The Chief Guest of the programme Dr. C.T. Jayanna was honoured on the occasion. While addressing the gathering he said that Kannada Rajyothsava is to be called as Karnataka Rajyothsava and it is also known as the Karnataka Foundation Day or Karnataka Day. This day came in to reality in 1956 when all the Kannada speaking religions united to become one state. At first, it was known as State of Mysore. But later the name was changed to Karnataka. He also said the students to love and respect their mother tongue, learn it to its perfection and not to forget their mother language in their life.

D.H. Nataraja, Administrator spoke about how Kannada as a language provides experiences and the importance of it as a highly structured language, while also stressing on how students must apply themselves in this beautiful language.

The students spread the fragrance of Kannada Language with their spectacular dance performance which left the audience speech bound like 'Hacchevu Kannada Deepa'. The event generated sense of pride in the minds of the students for being a part of a culture that is so rich and vibrant.

Ashoka, Final Year LL.B Student sung a song of great poetry Kuvempu that is 'Elladaru Iru, Enthadaru Iru' in a most melodious way. It was followed by presidential remark by Prof. Dr. M.S. Sudhadevi, Principal she spoke about what the language means to us, how we can possibly contribute to its upliftment and the necessity of language and society in education. The programme was concluded with the vote of thanks delivered by Shrinivas, Final Year Student of B.A LL.B. Around 174 were participated in the programme.

Sri. Fathyarajan, Vice-President, Saraswathi Education Society (R.), Chitradurga said Law is a very demanding profession and can be particularly arduous for female members who have to juggle familial obligations alongside professional tasks. Lawyers should drive the fulfillment of democratic values and lawyers as a group must campaign for positive change in society. While representing their clients they have to preserve the rule of law and act as safeguards of the individual rights of the citizens, lawyers have a larger role to play in our constitutional democracy and should not shy away from this responsibility.

Smt. D.K. Sheela, Secretary, Saraswathi Education Society (R.), Chitradurga in her address she said the legal profession is regarded a noble profession in every society where the rule of law prevails. In India, a large number of our national leaders including Mahathma Gandhi and Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru and other were lawyers. In fact it can be argued that training as lawyers and exposure to legal system in India and abroad for our leaders played major role in the evolution of our unique, national movement which sort to wrest from the british freedom, basic rights and democracy using reason, argument, peace, non-violence and moral courage.

Shri. H. Hanumanthappa, President, Saraswathi Education Society (R.), Chitradurga in his presidential remark he said that I have no hesitation in stating today that the India Legal System as a whole as lived up to the faith and confidence of the people. The Bar as well as the Bench deserves unequivocal recognition for this stellar achievement. The quality and speed with which justice is delivered is at the heart of our democracy. It is essential that we ensured the legal fraternity is knowledgeable, well trained, socially committed and equipped with the best of facilities and infrastructure.

Report of AVM/VVPAT Training and Awareness Programme for Parliamentary General Elections- 2024

Date:11.01.2024

The expression "Government of the People, by the People and For the People," is only accurate when every citizen takes part in the Election process. In a true democracy, every citizen participates in making decisions that affect both the welfare of the nation and their own. The right to vote provides the people of the nation with the ability to exercise their right to vote and to decide collectively with the support of the majority, who they believe is capable of holding the highest office in the land. The electorate and the electoral process have, however not synced well at times. The electoral process is not taken seriously by many voters and they do not comprehend the gravity of their right to vote. Hence, this training, awareness programme was organized by the Institution in collaboration with District Commission and District Election Commission, Chitradurga on 11th January 2024.

Sri. Govardhan, PWD Officer and Election In-charge and Sri. Purushotham, CPO and Election In-charge created an awareness through physical demonstration which fosters deeper understanding of Electronic Voting Machine (EVM) and Voter Verifiable Paper Audit Trail (VVPAT). Functionality and is instrumental in dispelling misconceptions, boosting voter confidence and ensuring a more informed and participative electorate.

The Booth Level Officers Shanthappa, Head Master, Girijamma. K.R and Shridevi. B were present on the occasion and joined their hands in creating awareness on EVM and VVPAT. So as to provide students with a first-hand experience of the voting process and familiarity with the machine. Imparting knowledge about the basic features of EVM and VVPATs, elucidating step by step procedure of casting votes and educating voters on how to verify their choices through the VVPAT slip was the main object of this programme.

The Election officials are giving demonstration on voting through EVM & VVPAT Machine and Prof. Dr. M.S. Sudhadeiv, Principal and Dr. D.B. Ravikumar, Asst. Professor have been in the programme

Report of Workshop on Gandhian Philosophy

Date: 27.01.2024

We are in 21st century which is commonly known as "The Century of development". Gandhian principles or value system is something that blends the entire India at one point of time. With this thought the Institution had organized a Symposium on Gandhian Philosophy on 27th January 2024. The programme was chaired by Sri P. C. Murugesappa, Physical Education Director. The programme began with the melodious invocation sung by Kumari Bhoomika.G.R of 5 years 5th semester B.A.LL.B student, which was followed by welcome speech delivered by Smt. D.K. Sheela, Senior Advocate and Secretary of Saraswathi Education Society, Chitradurga. It was further followed by introduction of the Guest which was carried by Prof. Dr. M. S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga.

The programme was inaugurated by Naadoja Dr. Woode P. Krishna, President, Karnataka Gandhi Smaraka Nidhi, Bengaluru and other dignitaries of the dais. It was followed by Inaugural speech. He said that Mahatma Gandhiji's principles initiates a revolution that took the whole of nation in its stomp and lasted till we were able to get independence. This value system gave the nation the principles of truth, non-violence, satyagraha which result in people's heart. We are still alarm by the uniqueness of Gandhiji's principled approach. He endorsed simple living and high thinking while practicing. At present political, economic, social and moral rights as well as values are going down and exploiting. In the course of development we have to think of these problems and try to find out the solutions best suited to our needs. The best suited solutions for the above problems of contemporary world are to follow Gandhi's principles. It is Gandhi's philosophy can save us from this predicament. Gandhi's profuse writings, speeches and talks cover every conceivable aspects of Indian life of his time as well as present world. He delivered a valuable speech which inspired the students towards the five policies of Gandhiji i.e. Non-Violence, Satyagraha, Anti corruption, Education liberty, Decentralization in Democracy.

Sri. Vemagal Somashekar, Gandhivadi he gave brief information about the Gandhiji's visit to Karnataka, how Gandhiji used to motivate the youth towards his principles of unity in diversity and other said concepts. When Mahatma Gandhi was leading the nation towards its freedom, he had toured along the length and breadth of the country to gather people's support. He had visited Karnataka 18 times during the freedom struggle, and this establishes his special bond with the state.

Sri H. Hanumanthappa, President, Saraswathi Education Society ®, Chitradurga gave his presidential remark by focusing on Gandhi believed in the total development of the human personality through education. He advocated that education should start with hand. His emphasis was more on 3H's (head, heart and hand) than on 3R's (reading, writing and arithmetic). His concept of education means "an all-round drawing out of the best in the child and man-body, mind and spirit". He viewed education as a quest for truth and non-violence. Gandhi Meaning of Education emphasized the craft-centered education. Gandhi said that "literacy should never be the end of education nor even the beginning. It is only one of the means whereby man and women can be educated". He felt that true education calls for a proper exercise and training of the bodily organs and mental faculties. Gandhi gives importance both of individual and society.

Scholarship of under NSS Unit was distributed to the students and further the programme was concluded by vote of thanks delivered by Sri P.C. Murugeshappa, Physical Education Director. Around 250 students took part in the programme and got inspired by the thought provoking speeches.

Awareness Programme on the Occasion of Data Privacy Day

Date: 28.01.2024

January 28th marks the global celebration of Data Privacy Day (DPD), dedicated to raising awareness about the significance of safeguarding personal information. The primary aim of this day is to educate individuals on privacy practices and principles, fostering a heightened sense of responsibility towards their own privacy. The overarching theme for this year is 'Be Privacy Conscious.'

Manipal Law School, MAHE, Bangalore Campus, had organized the International Data Privacy Day, 2024 in a positive symbiotic collaboration with Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. 44 students from 3years LL.B course and 5years B.A.LL.B course along with 5 faculty members had represented the college on this occasion. In the ever-evolving landscape of the digital age, prioritizing data privacy is not only prudent but essential for both individuals and businesses. It is imperative for us, as a society, to collectively embrace and internalize privacy-conscious behaviors, cultivating a culture of trust.

The program was inaugurated by lighting the lamp by Dr. Oswaldo Pereira de Lima Junior, Professor, Federal University of State of Rio de Janeiro – UNIRIO, Federal University of State of Rio Grande de Norte – UFRN, Brazil. And other dignitaries on the dias. It was followed by Panel Discussion on “Navigating Career Paths in Technology Laws and Date Privacy”. Several participants took part in this discussion and were further followed by Multiple Choices Quiz buzz.

The Guest Speaker Prof. (Dr.) Tapan Naik, Director, ISBR Law College, Bengaluru, Dr. Pragnya Patil, Prinicpal, Oxford Law College, Bngaluru and other distinguished Faculty members spoke on the occasion, Later selected Abstract Presentation was carried and awarded the prize.

The Panel discussion on “Importance of data privacy for younhg law graduates” was carried. Dr. Yogesh, Principal, PES College, Mandya, Dr. N. D. Gowda, Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga and other distinguished Principals and Professors shared their views that the need to keep personal information private isn't new. For decades, companies and groups have collected, used, and sometimes sold our personal data for various reasons. Digital technology has made it easier to collect even more data, legally and illegally. With 4.66 billion internet users worldwide, a lot of unprotected data is waiting to be taken.

The program was concluded by Vote of thanks delivered by Dr. Apoorvi Shrivastava, Associate Professor, Manipal Law School, MAHE Bengaluru Off-Campus.

Special Lecture on Civil Procedure Code

Date: 30.01.2024

The Institution had organized a Special Lecture on "Civil Procedure Code" on 30th January 2024. The resource person on the occasion was Sri G. H. Sadashivappa, Senior Advocate, District Court, Chitradurga. The programme began with the welcome speech delivered by Kumari Sai Nikitha of Final year 3 years LL. B. course student. There after the stage was occupied by the resource person and started his commendable lecture on Civil Procedure Code. He said, Procedural law or adjective law prescribes the procedure and machinery for the enforcement of those rights and liabilities. To say, in other words, the procedural law is concerned with enforcement of those rights and liabilities determined in accordance with the rules of the substantive law. The Law relating to the practices and procedure to be followed in the Civil Courts is regulated by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908.

The main object of this civil procedure code is to consolidate and amend the laws relating to the procedure and practices followed in the Civil Courts in India. As this Code is a general procedural law, it does not contradict with the local or special law in force. In the event of any conflict between the civil procedure code and the special law, the special law will prevail over the civil procedure code. In case the local or general law is silent on any matter, then the provisions of the civil procedure code will prevail.

There are many Changes brought by Amendments of 1999 and 2002 so as to cope-up with the current requirements. The main object of the amendments is to ensure fair and natural justice and providing a speedy remedy by eliminating untoward delay in disposal of the cases. After the inspirational lecture on the said topic, the time was provided for question from the students, which was addressed by the resource person in a most convincing way. The programme was dissolved by proposing vote of thanks delivered by Smt. Chethana. B.H of Final year 3 years LL.B. Course student. Around 95 students were present on the occasion and got benefitted.

Awareness Programme on the occasion of World Cancer Day

Date: 06.02.2024

In view of World Cancer Day which was celebrated on February 4th every year all over the world, the Institution conducted health awareness programme for the students on 6th February in Saraswathi Law College Campus under the theme 'Close the Care Gap'. Sri P. C. Murugeshappa, Physical Education Director gave an introductory speech on importance of World Cancer Day, he said Cancer is a condition in which some cells in the body develop uncontrollably and spread to other parts of the body. Globally, cancer is the leading cause of mortality, accounting for over one crore deaths in 2020. In India, the incidence rate was reported between 19 and 20 lakhs (estimated cases in 2022). Usage of Tobacco, prolonged consumption of alcohol, unhealthy food habit, lack of physical exercise and exposure to air pollution are all risk factors for cancer.

Prof. Dr. M. S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga, gave a talk on What is CANCER? and Its Risk factors and she also gave a brief information on Common types of cancer in INDIA. She also said that general awareness of cancer screening, prevention, and treatment is low among the Indian and global populations, especially in low and middle-income with poor literacy rates leading to an increase in cancer prevalence, and there is an urgent need to fill the lacunae with proper education. World Cancer Day brings attention to how important it is to prevent cancer, find it early, and treat it. The programme was dissolved by proposing vote of thanks. Around 100 students took part and benefitted by this short awareness programme.

Awareness Programme on the occasion of National Women's Day

Date: 13.02.2024

The National Women's Day was celebrated at Saraswathi Law College on 13th February, 2024. The purpose of celebrating Women's Day is – To raise awareness about the status and dignity of women among the students.

At the beginning of program Saraswathi Law College Student Vishnu. V., of final year LL.B delivered welcome speech, which was followed by a brief introduction of the Child abuse and the POSCO Act. Thereafter, respected Headmistress Smt. Divya, Kote High School, Chitradurga, gave a short speech on Women's day. This was followed by a skit focusing on sexual abuse and the POSCO Act. The skit was beautifully presented so as to create awareness to the school children about the Legal Provisions dealing with Child Sexual Abuse in India, Tips to empower Children themselves against sexual abuse. Shashank T. L. of final year student of Saraswathi Law College concluded this skit by introducing the actors and also by giving a brief statistics about such kind of sexual abuse cases. He said that Sexual abuse is quite rampant in India and both girls and boys are vulnerable to it. There are still many non reported cases which encourage the offender to continue such abuse.

Smt. Harsha. S. M., Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College and the co-ordinator of the programme addressed the gathering and said 'Early detection of Child Sexual Abuse is the need of the hour due to the factors like:

- It will help the situation to get worse in terms of halting the progress from less severe form to more severe form;
- It will help in overcoming the trauma caused by the abuse;
- It will prevent sexually transmitted diseases and unwanted pregnancies; early reporting will help in speedy processing and early justice;
- It will help in separating the perpetrator from the victim and reduce the risk of repetition of the offence;
- Lowers the severity of long-term psychological impact on the victim.

The programme concluded with the presidential remark delivered by Headmistress Smt. Divya, Kote High School, Chitradurga, She said Keeping in view the growing imbalance in the man-woman ratio, we have to emphasize focusing on celebrating and welcoming girl child. To get rid of vicious social customs of dowry system responsible for killing of girl child, the status of women shall have to be enhanced.

Special Lecture on Registration of Property

Date: 16.02.2024

The Institution organized a Special Lecture on Registration of Property on 16th February 2024. Sri Rajanikanth. P. Office of the Sub-Registrar, Stamps and Registration Department, Chitradurga was the Resource person on the occasion. The programme began with the Welcome speech delivered by Smt. Renuka H. of 3 years, Final year LL.B. Student.

Sri Rajanikanth. P, the resource person gave a brief introduction on the importance of property registration. He said Property registration is an essential process that enables the government to maintain a proper public record. It helps the City Survey and Land Records Department to decide the value of the tax on property and levy property tax from the right owner.

The property registration must be formalized at the sub-registrar's office following payment of certain dues, such as stamp duty, for it to be considered complete when a property is transferred from one person to another. The procedure is referred to as "property registration."

The Indian Registration Act of 1908 is the primary legal authority on the subject of document/property registration legislation. This legislation requires the registration of a number of different papers in order to guarantee the authenticity of titles, safeguard against fraud, and preserve evidence.

Then the resource person covered the Steps to follow for property registration. Online property registration tips were also given to the students. He said that in the majority of Indian states, the buyer is able to finish a significant portion of the procedure of property registration online. You may be able to use the internet services to complete some of the steps of the property registration procedure, but this will depend on the state in which you reside.

However, in order to finalize the transaction, you will need to present yourself in person at the office of the sub-registrar, together with the person you are purchasing the property from and two witnesses. You will need to come back to our office after the paperwork has been registered so that you may obtain the registered copies of your property documents.

The Programme was finally concluded by proposing vote of thanks delivered by Sri. L. Srishyla, Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga.

Koustubha Law Fest 2023-24

Inaugural Program

Date: 19.02.2024

From 19th February to 24th February 2024 a colourful and memorable “Koustubha” Law Fest was organized in Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. College fests are an essential part of campus life that brings students together for a fun-filled event. It is a time when the campus is alive with energy, and students get a break from their routine academic schedules. A college fest is not only about fun and entertainment, but it also has a positive impact on the campus culture and community building and of course very useful for the holistic development of the students. The minute one set foot in the college campus, one could feel the vibrancy. The tone of decorations was very festive as one entered. The Dias had been decorated with a Huge Glittering flex comprising the theme of the festival.

This event was a week long program and the most awaited event for the students. The event was diligently organized. The grand show began with the vibrant inauguration, held on 19th February 2024 at 7 A.M. in the College campus. The dress code for the day was Jubba Paijam for boys and Langadavani/ Lehenga for girls. The inaugural session began with the soulful melodies invocation sung by Kumari Ashwini of 5 years 1st Sem. B.A. LL.B., it was followed by a warm welcome speech delivered by Chetana. B. H of final year 3 years LL. B., student cum cultural secretary of Student Law Forum. The programme was inaugurated by Sri. H. Hanumanthappa, Chairman, Saraswathi Education Society, Chitradurga and other dignitaries on the dais through watering the plant. It was accompanied by a melodious Saraswathi Vandana, hailing the goddess of knowledge and wisdom. Thereafter the “KOUSTUBHA” Banner was released by our special invitee Master Siddharth Gowda G. Patil and other dignitaries on the dais.

Sri. H. Hanumanthappa, Chairman, Saraswathi Education Society, Chitradurga delivered the inaugural speech by his thought provoking words; he said Campus culture is an integral part of the college experience. It is the personality and character of the college that shapes the experiences of students, faculty, and staff. A college fest provides a platform to showcase the unique culture of the college. Students can exhibit their talents and skills in various competitions, and cultural events showcase the diverse backgrounds of the students. It helps in fostering a sense of pride and belongingness towards the college.

The special invitee Master Siddharth Gowda G. Patil and his Parents were honoured by Peta, Shawl, Garland and Mementos, it was followed by felicitation to the students who were participated in Model Legislative Assembly Competition and secured different prizes.

Smt. D. K. Sheela, Senior Advocate and Secretary, Saraswathi Education Society, Chitradurga, addressed the gathering and said that Apart from promoting the campus culture, a college fest is also an excellent opportunity for community building. It brings students, faculty, and staff together on a common platform, providing them with an opportunity to interact and get to know each other better. Such events encourage students to come out of their shells, interact with others and make new friends.

Prof. Dr. M. S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga gave her presidential remark and said a college fest is also an excellent opportunity for students to develop their leadership and organizational skills. Organizing a college fest requires a team effort, and students learn to work together towards a common goal. It helps students to develop skills such as time management, communication, and problem-solving, which are essential for their future careers.

The Programme was concluded by vote of thanks delivered by Kumari Bhoomika G. R., of 3rd year 5 years B.A.,LL.B course. She extends most sincere thanks to the entire Saraswathi Law College family for their incessant support, guidance for making a great success of this inaugural session.

Cultural programs were carried further; it was a truly mesmerizing show as the cultural event commenced with the traditional spark of Bharatanatya presented by Lavanya a student of 3 years 1st Sem., LL.B. It was followed by Master Siddharth Gowda G. Patil's exclusive song and entertainment program. It was further followed by many other programs like Shastriya Song, Janapada Vadyaghosti, Group Dance, Mimicry, Group songs and many more which run in a most exuberant way up to 11 P.M. at night.

- Students are hereby informed to follow dress code strictly.
- “Best Organizer” award will be given to the class to organize the events systematically in time.
- The organizers are supposed to organize the events as per the time table provided.
- The class who need to organize the event should provide the rules of the events beforehand.
- The organizers as well as participants are requiring to get arranged for their costumes and other property by themselves.
- The “Best Organizer” award will be given on the basis of certain criteria like:
 - a) Invitation- Inviting the Guest (Judges), Lecturers.
 - b) Rules for the events.
 - c) Stage Arrangement, Management.
 - d) Anchoring, Welcome Speech, Vote of thanks, Time-Management etc..
 - e) Number of students gathered.
 - f) Number of participants for the event.

Rangoli Competition was organized by Students of 5 years X Sem., B.A.LL.B. Around 17 students participated in this competition with great enthusiasm. In this one hour long competition, the students tried to prove their talent in the best possible way. Skills of aesthetics, creativity and innovation can be developed by this competition.

Rules for Rangoli Competition were made by 5 years X Sem., students as followed:

- Rangoli art should be drawn within the specified space given.
- There will be only one round of competition
- Maximum time to complete the Rangoli is one hour 20 minutes.
- Sole participation is expected.
- Participants will be responsible for arrangement of the material required to prepare Rangoli.
- The participants will not be allowed to refer to any printed material etc., for preparing Rangoli.
- Multiple entries by one person are not allowed.
- Any act of indiscipline by participants will be disqualified.

- Judging will be based on overall appearance, clarity in rangoli art, colour combination and creativity.

Written Qualifying Quiz was organized by Teaching Staff, for which Dr. N. D. Gowda, Assistant Professor was the co-coordinator. We received a magnificent number of participation in this event i.e around 90 students took part in this event. As this event enhances student's basic General Knowledge, a Multiple Choice Question pattern was adopted. 20 questions based on several subjects were adopted in this Written Qualifying Quiz round. 12 highest scorers selected and out of them six teams were been made for the final round quiz which was organized on 23rd February 2024.

Second Day Events of Koustubha Law Fest

Date: 20.02.2024

On the second day, was even more vibrant and full of surprises! Concerned Classes as per the time table conducted their events in a most enthusiastic way. Maximum students were dressed up with Red colour dress code.

Mona-acting:

Mono-acting is a very interesting art from which evolves both acting as well as intelligence. The art has been perfected by very few people. Five years 2nd sem., students organized this event. Around 10 students participated enthusiastically performing acts of different leaders and great personalities. There was much of inspiration that could be drawn from each participant as they portrait their character. Furthermore, it made judging the event very difficult with tough competitions between the participants.

Rules for Mona Acting Competition:

- Time limit is 1-3 minutes to perform their act.
- Obscenity and offensive gestures are strictly not allowed.
- Decision of the judges will be final and binding.
- This is an individual event.
- The actors can use props and background music for their act.
- There is no restriction on language.

Singing Competition:

“Music is a world within itself, with a language we all understand” to unite hearts through Music Three years 1st sem., students organized this Singing Competition on 10th February 2024.

Rules for Singing Competition:

- The song chosen to perform must not contain ny vulgarity or it should be in a manner that the fillings of any religion or community should not get hurt.
- The choice of the costume will be considered.
- The judges would pay attention to the body language and the expressions of the performer, pitch, tone etc.
- The final decision will rest with judges only.
- The time limit is fixed between 2-3 minutes.

The aim of this competition was to encourage the passion for the singing of the students and provide a place to showcase their talent. The event received an overwhelming response. The participants put fourth their enthralling performances and made the event a massive success. All the participants through their melodious voices evoked the feeling of music. The overall experience was an enthralling one for everyone.

Third Day Events of Koustubha Law Fest

Date: 21.02.2024

On the third day the maximum students were dressed up with yellow colour dress code and began the program with full of energy and dedication. The day commenced with Dumb Charades. Five years 5th Sem B.A.LL.B students organized this event. Around 26 participants participated in an event. Dumb charades is a fun activity where participants have to act out a word or phrase without speaking, and the other participants have to guess what it is. To make the students more clear about the action and in order to bring out their hidden talents and showcase their acting skills this event was arranged.

Rules for Dumb Charades:

- Two members in a group.
- The performance has to be silent with no words as the word 'dumb' goes.
- The player has to use facial expression, gestures and body language.
- Clues like lip-reading, humming songs, pointing and spelling are banned.
- Language, number of words must be said at first.
- There is a particular time limit for teams to guess i.e. 60 seconds.
- There will be four rounds in this event like Proverb round, Word guess round, Legal term round, Films and actor personalities round.

Cooking without fire, Elocution and Mimicry competitions were commenced in different class rooms simultaneously. Cooking without fire competition was organized by Five years 1st sem., students in a most systematic way. In all 27 students participated wholeheartedly in the event. Their efforts were evaluated on the basis of five parameters: i) Dish name, ii) Taste, iii) Presentation, iv) Calorie content and v) Hygiene. Participants infused lots of creativity and served delicious eatables to enhance the taste buds. Here the participant had to prepare an eatable without using the fire. So the participants served plates of Bhel puri, Chaat, andwiches, shakes, Mojito, Chocolate lollypop Dry fruits laddu and many more.

Rules of Cooking without fire:

- One team may contain a maximum of 2 members.
- Pre-registration is mandatory.
- Total preparation time – 40-45 minutes.

- All the items required for cooking should be brought by the participants themselves, including water, only working table will be provided.
- Dishes should be purely vegetarian.
- Participants should not bring any cut, chopped or grates raw materials. They should process it on the spot within allotted time.
- Participants can bring non-electric equipment like mixer, chopper, juicer, grater etc.
- Readymade decorative items are not permitted.
- Participants should clean their respective work places after the competition.
- Participants should arrange separate glass, spoons and plates, similarly cutlery items for serving three judges.
- The evaluation will be based on the taste of the dish, nutritional level, hygiene and presentation, unique name of the dish.

The event gave a platform to the students to demonstrate their culinary knowledge and skills related to: developing and following a recipe, preparation of a dish, and displaying the dish before a judging panel where it will be evaluated on flavor, taste and palatability.

Mimicry Competition:

Mimicry is an action or skill of imitating someone or something, especially in order to entertain. Five year 5th sem., students organized the Mimicry competition. Around 10 participants took part in this competition. Human beings often mimic or imitate others both consciously and unconsciously. Mimicry has social benefits. Imitating others helps build rapport between two people or bond together social groups. Whether it occurs consciously or unconsciously, in face-to-face interactions or online, copying someone or something is an implicit way of paying them a compliment. In order to get familiar with the concept of mimicry, Five year 5th sem., students had organized a Mimicry Competition.

Rules for Mimicry Competition:

- Each student will be given one entry only.
- Marking will be based on Skill imitating, Variety of sound and voice, Presentation.
- Participants may mimic sound/voice of any animal, thing, person or altogether.

- They can mimic any celebrity (Sports person, Bollywood or any other star, politician etc.)
- Language is no bar but it shouldn't contain abusive or offensive language or content.
- Time limit is 4+1=5 minutes. Marks will be reduced for mimicry done exceeding the time limit.
- Judges evaluate performance based on accuracy, creativity, end audience engagement.

Mimicry plays a significant role in learning, particularly social skills and teaching students to mimic an animal paves the way for more distinct and faster conversing and remove stage fear. Their acts involved reciting famous dialogues, facial expressions and actions of the chosen personalities.

Elocution competition:

“An eloquent speech does not reach from the lips to the ears rather it reaches from heart to heart.” With this thought in mind, the students of Five year 1st sem., organized this competition. Around 12 students took part in the competition. Elocution plays an important role in the formation, articulation and pronunciation of speech. It helps students to exhibit their oratory skills, overcome stage fear and promote public speaking. Elocution competitions help students to develop their self-expression and confidence. The competition was culminated by presenting flower to the Jury members followed by a few words of encouragement by them.

Rules for Elocution competition:

- The participants should participate solely.
- Pre-registration is mandatory.
- Medium of expression will be in Kannada or English.
- Each speaker will be allowed to speak for maximum 5 minutes i.e. 4+1.
- Topic of elocution will be announced one day before the event.
- The performance will be judged in one language.
- The sequence of speaker will be decided by a draw of lot.
- The decision of the judges regarding the result of the competition will be final and binding.
- The judging will be based on the command over speech, expression, articulation and vocabulary.
- The competitor is strictly prohibited of using any mode of electronic gadgets or any form of materials.

It was indeed astounding to see how beautifully participants had put up their thoughts, insights, humour and delivered the speech of consciousness which was fluent, erudite and articulate while being unscripted.

Up-Cycles:

Up-cycling is a powerful tool in the fight against fashion waste. By repurposing old clothing into new, stylish pieces, up-cycling extends the life of textiles, reduces the demand for new resources, and minimizes the environmental impact of fashion production. Up-cycled art is essentially the practice of repurposing recyclable waste in order to turn it from something that is unwanted to a creative piece of genius, with this thought 3 years 5th sem., students had organized the event up-cycling competition. Around 6 members participated in this event and showed their creativity in offering products with unique designs and patterns.

Rules of Up-cycles

- The required waste material and stationery like scissor, thread, etc., should be brought by the participants.
- Waste material could be anything like tetra pack, bottles, newspapers, old utensils, jute material or any second hand items that otherwise would be thrown away.
- Sole participation is allowed. No helping hand.
- Time duration is one hour.
- Judging criteria: Creativity, Item usefulness, Complexity of the project.

Fourth Day Events of Koustubha Law Fest

Date: 22.02.2024

The formal ceremony of the fourth day of this Koustubha Law Fest was shaded with Green Colour dress code where the students, staff and everyone were dressed up with the pretty green colour of different shades. The day started with Debate competition. The primary objective of the Debate competition was to encourage participants to harness their Rigorous and Critical Thinking, Academic skills, Mental and Emotional maturity. The Debate Competition was organized by Three years 1st sem., students in a most enthusiastic way. Around 25 students took part in this event.

Rules for Debate competition:

- State the facts, not just your personal opinion. Anything related to Law or citation.
- Respect your opponents: healthy debates leave space for both sides to be heard.
- Speak, don't shout. Turning up the volume will not make your argument more convincing.
- Don't interrupt, while the other person is speaking.
- Tap in, if you would like to step forward with an idea, gently tap someone on the shoulder who is sitting on the bench. This signals that you are ready to take a turn without disturbing the debate.
- The team supporting the motion must not shift its point of view. ...
- If a speaker makes a statement, they must be able to provide evidence or reasons to support the statement.
- Facts presented in a debate must be accurate.
- Speakers may not bring up new points in a rebuttal speech.

To begin with, each participant spoke their mind on topics that led to a wide spectrum of contrasting views which were maturely tackled by the opponent team. Facts represented by participants were accurate and expressed in decency language. The event was concluded maturely.

Mime Show Competition:

Mime is an art or a technique of portraying a character, mood, idea, or narration by gestures and body movements. Mime competition on the theme 'Social Awareness' was organized by Three years 3rd sem., students. The competition was adjudged under the criteria of story weaving, coordination, execution and overall effect. There were 5 teams and all of them performed wonderfully well. Participants depicted the theme with their magnificent dramatic performance, brilliant gestures and body movements, but we were awestruck by the performance put up by each team as they spellbound the audience with their fabulous act portrayed with such ease and conviction.

Rules for Mime Show Competition:

- A team of 8-10 members are allowed in a group.
- The act should not contain any dialogues or lip sync.
- Background music is allowed.
- The theme should not be announced and should only be conveyed through gestures and movement.
- Contestants will be disqualified if act contains any offensive disrespectful actions or gestures.
- Duration: Maximum time limit is 10 minutes
- Negative points for exceeding time limit.
- Properties are not allowed.
- Judgment will based on the novelty of the idea and decisions of the judges are final.

Mastering the use of facial movements to express emotions is essential to not only acting but to communication in general. Body Movements: How someone walks, sits, stands and holds themselves communicates a lot about who they are and how they feel. In mime, to show sadness, a student might walk slower and slouch. Overall it was a great show as each team tried their level best to leave the impact on the audience spreading social awareness.

Super Minute:

The event was diligently and successfully organized by Three years 3rd sem., students. It witnessed an overwhelming response of 81 participants and was a magnificent success. Super Minute games are one minute games which are fun activities requiring participants to complete a challenge within sixty seconds. Example includes Gravity game, Face the Cookie, Scoop It Up, There She Blows etc., attracted a huge crowd. These games make excellent team building activities since they require a few supplies and a short time to plan.

These challenges are similar to Minute to win it games. These games are examples of fun team building exercises for work, team meeting games, quick and fun office games, quick and fun office games, and team building games without much efforts. These ideas are ways to improve team cooperation in all the activities.

The way few games played are:

1. Face the Cookie

Face the Cookie game is one of the best one minute party games. You only need a few tiny cookies. You can start by handing all players one cookie apiece. Then, instruct players to place the cookie on their forehead, ensuring that it does not fall over. Players will then use their facial muscles to move the cookie to their mouths. You can eliminate any participants who do not manage to move and eat the cookie within the one minute timeframe.

2. Gravity Game

The Gravity Game is a simple game that adults and kids alike will enjoy. You need to pass two balloons to each player. Then, let participants blow out the balloons and set the timer. Players will toss the two balloons in the air and keep them up without using their hands. Since the gravity game may need participants to move around, get a large space that will accommodate all players.

Fifth Day Events of Koustubha Law Fest

Date: 23.02.2024

The fifth day Koustubha Law Fest Grand Show began with an energetic welcome delivered by Dr. N. D. Gowda, Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. The dress code for the day was Blue and most of the students were dressed up in different shades of blue. It began with the Quiz Competition. This Quiz teams were selected from the highest scorer of the Written Qualifying Quiz participants. There were altogether six teams selected, 2 members in each team.

The goal of the Event Quiz competitions is always interesting and informative, which keeps the students interested. The primary goal of this event is to educate them on current general knowledge in Law, Science and Technology, Current Affairs, Sports, Business, and Entertainment.

Faculty members and students attended the event with all their hearts. The quiz was divided into six rounds:

1. Question and Answer Round – Current Affairs, General Knowledge, Law.
2. Multiple Choice Round - which based on Sports, Constitution, Political Science, Sociology, Economics
3. Jumble Letters Round
4. Musical Round - guessing the song by the clue of pictures.
5. Logo Round
6. Rapid Fire Round

In the mid of the each round there was a questions posed to the audience where the audience got the prize instantly and enjoyed the show. The quiz competition resulted in students who were very responsive, well-prepared, enthusiastic, and followed the rules. The level of competition was kept on par with competitive exams to assist students in their academic careers and future job opportunities as well as entertaining too. The students appreciated the Faculties efforts to broaden their knowledge and learning.

Just a Minute:

Just a Minute, popularly referred to as JAM is an innovative way of testing the speaker's presence of mind, fluency of language, ability to connect their thoughts on the given topic and overall communication skills of the participants. Keeping this in mind, Five years 3rd sem., students organized JAM Competition. The participants took up the challenge wholeheartedly and spoke on various given topics, showcasing their logical flow of thoughts, coherence of ideas, spontaneity and general knowledge in just a minute, which impressed the judges and the audience too. The contest enriched one and all. The students found the competition fun-filled and educative.

Rules of Just a Minute Competition:

- The person must speak on the subject from the piece of paper .
- Time limit is one minute.
- Speaker must speak without repeating a word.
- Without deviating from the subject.
- Without pausing for too long.
- Speaker can score points by correctly challenging a player when they mess up.

This kind of Competition helps the students to develop confidence by challenging them to speak in a light-hearted setting, but in front of an audience of their classmates and their teacher. Successfully completing the one minute is a sure sign that the student's ability to speak spontaneously-without note or preparation – is improving. It is also good fluency practice, requiring the quick recall of appropriate vocabulary; this is especially true if the teacher gives bonus points for especially impressive word choices.

Best Friends Competition:

You see your best friend all the time, plus you talk and also have insights into each other's thoughts and ambitious goals. This competition is delightful way to deepen the bond between friends by uncovering shared memories, preferences, and inside jokes. It typically consists of a series of questions designed to reveal how well friends truly know each other. From favorite movies and childhood dreams to quirky habits, the best friend competition encourages laughter and reminiscence. It's not just a test of knowledge but a celebration of the unique connection two individuals share. With this whole concept Three years 5th sem., students organized Best Friends Competition. Around 26 teams took part in this event.

Rules for Best Friends Competition:

- Two Participants in a team.
- Two games for each Team, One for eligible and another one for main game.
- Questions will be asked for main game.
- Judges decision is final.

Taking part in this event often leads to heart-warming discoveries and reinforces the special camaraderie that defines true friendship. Whether taken for fun or as a nostalgic trip down memory lane, the best friend

In an outside the auditorium, can be see various students and staff members dressed in their ethnic best, set the mood for the celebrations. The day started with Dance competition, Dancing not only helps students to foster their creativity and boosts their confidence, it also teaches dancers to never give up, lead a disciplined life and never stop learning. Keeping the above in mind Three years 5th sem., students organized the Dance competition.

Rules for Dance Competition:

- Time limit is 6-8 minutes for each performance.
- Negative marking for exceeding the time limit.
- Each team may have 6-12 members, including coordinators.
- Choice of songs is open to the participants.

The participants were energetic and performed their dance moves with poise. The choreography, rhythm, synchronization and presentation of all the students were exemplary. Judgement was done on the basis of choreography, relevance to the theme, expressions and overall presentation and the judges had a tough time deciding the winner. The event provided a platform for the students to hone their dancing skills and display their talent.

Skit Competition:

Skit competition was organized by Five years 7th sem., students with the object of enabling the students to work in the society through street, theatre for social awareness. Talents of students should be given scope. It was also conducted to enhance the imagination skills, powers of creative expression, and linguistic skills of the students.

Rules for Skit Competition:

- The Theme of the Skit should be based on Legal Awareness.
- The team participating in the skit can have a maximum of 10 members.
- The teams will be allowed a maximum of 2 minutes to prepare the stage and 10 minutes to perform.
- The Props will be arranged by the teams themselves (General furniture like table/chairs will be made available at event venue).
- No use of slangs and un-parliamentary language in the skit.

- The Competition will be judged on the basis of the script, facial expressions, and creative use of props, stage mannerism, co-ordination, voice modulation and overall performance.
- In case of any dispute, decision of the organizers of the event shall be final and conclusive.

The students participated enthusiastically in the competition as they got an opportunity to showcase their talent in dramatization, linguistic skills, and self-talent. The competition was greatly helpful and encouraging in boosting the self-confidence of students.

Fashion Show:

The Fashion Show captured the audience that watched the Gala and Gorgeous with eyes and mouth open with a thunder bolt of wonder. Fashion Show encourages students to identify their innate talents, unique style, and develop confidence. Their participation will help them learn the virtue of respect, manners, and adjustment, with this concept Five years 10th sem., students organized the Fashion Show Competition which was one of the most electric events of the college, which raised the glamour quotient for the college students.

Rules for Fashion Show:

- It is a team event or Solo performance.
- A team can have 12- 15 members. (Including participants, choreographer and coordinator).
- Time limit for every team would be 8 minutes (Including setup and the performance both).

- Participants should carry their tracks in C.D or Aux.
- Vulgarity is strongly prohibited. Any form of obscenity will lead to debarring the team from the contest.
- Use of cigarettes, alcohol and any unfair means is strongly prohibited.
- Teams will be judged on costumes, theme, walking stance and attitude.
- Decision of the judges will be final and binding.

It's common to experience moments of self-doubt and insecurity, but fashion can serve as a powerful tool to boost confidence levels. Not only is it a fun way to experiment with different styles, shapes, and colors, but it also allows us to express our unique identities without having to say a word. It is easy to understand why the importance of fashion is so relevant to human history and personal relationships, and fortunately, nowadays we are experiencing the democratization of fashion like never before, and people from different social levels now have access to real fashion, being able to transmit their identities and personalities through fashion, since this is its main function.

Awareness Programme on the Occasion of World Day of Social Justice

Date: 20.02.2024

The Institution had organized an Awareness Programme on the occasion of World Day of Social Justice on 20th February 2024, in collaboration with District Legal Services Authority, District Advocates Association, Zilla Panchayat, Social Welfare Department, Chitradurga. Legal Aid and Legal Literacy Programme on “Constitutional View on Social Justice” was the concept of the occasion.

The programme began with a warm welcome speech delivered by V. Krishnamurthy, Assistant Director, Taluk Welfare Officer, Chitradurga, which was followed by nature friendly Inauguration through watering the plant by Sri M. Vijay, Senior Civil Judge and Member Secretary, District Legal Services Authority, Chitradurga, and other dignitaries on the dais.

Sri Jagadish Hebballi, Joint Director, District Social Welfare Office, Chitradurga delivered the Introductory speech and said in 2007, the United Nations General Assembly recognized the urgent need to address ongoing social injustices across the globe. They declared February 20th as the World Day of Social Justice, aiming to promote equity, fairness, and inclusion for all.

Sri M. Vijay, Senior Civil Judge and Member Secretary, District Legal Services Authority, Chitradurga delivered the inaugural speech by focusing on the theme of World Day of Social Justice 2024 i.e., “Bridging Gaps, Building Alliances”. The United Nations choose this theme to emphasize the importance of collaboration and partnership in addressing the world's challenges, henceforth this programme has been organized to address the current problems and solutions by joining hands with Saraswathi Law College and other Departments in Chitradurga District.

Sri Y. Thippeswamy, President, Advocates Association, Chitradurga addressed the gathering and said that the Preamble of the Constitution has used the terms like “Socialist”, “Social and Economic Justice”, “Equality”, these terms indicates that the state would extensively involve in social welfare of people, and would try to establish an egalitarian society.

Prof. Dr. M. S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga delivered a special lecture on the Constitutional view regarding social justice. She said that the Preamble to the Constitution read with Directive Principles in Articles 38, 42, 43, 46, and 48A promotes the concept of Social Justice. The aim of social justice is to attain a substantial degree of social, economic and political equality. The preamble and various Articles contained in Part IV of the Constitution promote social justice so that life of every individual becomes meaningful and he is able to live with human dignity. The concept of social justice engrafted in the Constitution consists of diverse principles essentially for the orderly growth and development of personality of every citizen

Sri B. M. Anil Kumar, Vice President, Advocates Association, Chitradurga stressed that Social justice does not demand equal treatment but preferential treatment. The proper and balanced implementation of government policies is needed to ensure social justice in the society.

The programme was concluded by proposing vote of thanks delivered by C. Prakash, Warden, Government Boy's Post Metric Hostel, Social Welfare Department, Chitradurga. Around 193 participants took the benefit of this programme.

Report of Workshop on New Criminal Laws

Date: 18.05.2024

In Collaborative effort Saraswathi Law College and Police Training School, Aimangala, a One Day Workshop on recently amended or modified Criminal Laws (BNS, BNSS and BSA) was organised at Saraswathi Law College, Golden Jubilee Auditorium on Saturday.

The Programme was commenced by Sri P. C. Murugesappa, Physical Director, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. The programme begun with blessings of almighty god through invocation sung by Bhoomika G.R of 5 years 3rd year B.A.LL.B., student.

Dr. Kariyanna. K.S, Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga delivered the welcome speech. Shri Krishna Naik A, Police Inspector, Police Training School, Aimangala Inaugurated the Workshop, emphasising that it aimed to enhance capabilities of law students through detailed explanation of New Criminal Laws and the process involved in the implementations.

In the first session he discussed the topic 'What has been included and What has been left behind'.

In the second session Prof. Dr. Nataraja, Retd., Professor, Department of Criminology, Chitradurga, shared his insights on 'Fundamental Changes in New Laws' while highlighting the need of new criminal laws. He said that the earlier laws were largely influenced by the colonial mindset and lacked the humanist approach, while the new laws are based on humanist values and are victim centric. These new laws allow the use of technology in dealing with crime and provide for the time bound disposal of cases.

In the third session Prof. Dr. M. S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga expressed that Criminal law is one of the most crucial branches of law. As it directly impact day to day human behaviour, it is a branch of law that manifest the relationship between state and its citizens. Since time immemorial societies around the world have observed a prescribed code of conduct. Indian Penal Code, 1860 occupies a predominant place amongst the laws designed as agencies of social control. Although crucial amendments have also been made from time to time to adapt these legislations to social, economic and technological changes, the amendments have proved insufficient in creating a robust criminal administrative system which is well equipped to meet the peculiar challenges of contemporary times.

The programme was dissolved by proposing vote of thanks delivered by Smt. Harsha S. M., Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. Around 260 students sought the benefits from the workshop.

Report of the Intercollegiate Women Volleyball Tournament

Date: 29.05.2024

Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga in association with Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi organized the Intercollegiate Women Volleyball tournament on 29th May, 2016 at Saraswathi Law College Campus. There was volleyball jargon and enthusiasm flying on the day of Inter-College Volleyball match. The volleyball court saw all players ready to display their skills and passion. There was also a cheerful audience to cheer the players.

The event witnessed the participation of 10 teams, all competing for the top spot in this exciting competition.

The tournament commenced with the Inaugural ceremony at 10.30 a.m., which was presided by Sri P. C. Murugeshappa, Physical Director, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. At first the Chief Guests were welcomed to the ground and participants were introduced to them and were taken to the dais. By praising god with beautiful Invocation song sung by Chaitra of Final year 3 years LL.B student the Inaugural session was begun which was followed by a warm welcome speech delivered by Smt. Abhinetri Patwardhan, Assistant Professor. It was further followed by inaugurating the tournament through watering the plant by Sri H. Hanumanthappa, President. Saraswathi Education Society (R) and Former Member of Rajya Sabha, Chitradurga. In his address, he emphasized the importance of physical fitness in students' daily lives, sharing his own experiences to motivate and inspire the participants. He also highlighted the need of women participation in various sports activities at different levels to encourage players to reach their full potential. He also explained the significance of self-discipline, and perseverance, in a student's life.

Dr. Khaleed Khan, Director, Department of Physical Education, Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi addressed the gathering by appreciating the participation of all the players and quoted that Positive expectations are important for your Volley Ball Success because you tend to get what you expect.

Prof. Dr. M. S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Saraswathi Law College delivered the motivational Speech for the players in her presidential remark, which was followed by vote of thanks delivered by Sri P. C. Murugeshappa, Physical Director, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga.

Soon after the Inaugural session Fixture was made by the Referees. The Energy displayed by players of all the team was remarkable. It kept on pulling the crowd towards the intense match. The players were completely engulfed in playing.

On the other hand audience was no less attentive towards the game. Every hit was backed by applauds. Whenever ball was missed on either side, it made even audience despair over it. Many teams had well experienced players. The game kept audience involved till the end.

Valedictory cum Prize distribution programme was continued at last. Dr. K. S. Kariyanna, Assistant Professor delivered the welcome speech. It was followed by participants experience sharing session, they praised the arrangement and the co-operation and the support of the students, teachers and other staff, particularly they praised the food arrangement.

Smt. D. K. Sheela, Secretary, Saraswathi Education Society, Senior Advocate, Chitradurga addressed the gathering and said as I observed from the morning Volleyball helps teach important lessons in perseverance, teamwork and selflessness. It helps prepare you to move on to the next stage in life, whether that be any task in your life.

It ended on high note with a speech stressing upon the importance of healthy matches and sportsman spirit by Dr. Khaleed Khan, Director, Department of Physical Education, Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi.

Finally, Prize Distribution ceremony was carried which was the most awaited one for the participants. In this ceremony the Referees were given Honorarium and the memento. Report of State Level Workshop on New Criminal Major Acts: Changes and Impact on Criminal Justice

The institution gave an opportunity to attend State Level Workshop for the criminal laws subject teachers and two students to upgrade the knowledge with respect to the new criminal major acts, for this they have visited Shivamogga to National College of Law and Centre for Post Graduate Studies In Law, Shivamogga in Association with Alumni Association of CBR National College of Law Shivamogga had organised state level workshop on "New Criminal Major Acts :Changes and Impact on Criminal Justice". For creating awareness on the new Three criminal laws, namely The Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023(BNS); The Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023(BNSS) and The Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam,2023(BSA) repealing The Penal Code,1860 The code of criminal procedure,1973 and The Evidence act, 1872.

In the Inaugural address delivered by Manjunath Nayak, Principal Dist And Session Judge, Shivamogga., he said that the new three criminal laws are the watershed moment of our society, because no law affects the day to day conduct of our society like criminal law. He also said judge made laws are being changed into parliament made law.

P. Narayan Director of National College of Law talked about the changing landscape of India and said the essentiality of the awareness regarding new criminal laws. Dr.Anala, Principal CBR National College of Law Shivamogga set the tone for the conference and introduced the theme of the conference, she said that this is a journey of enlightenment and exploration into the heart of one of the India's most crucial endeavours, the transformation of the criminal justice system.

In the first session Sri H.D Ananada Kumar Retd., Public Prosecutor Advocate Mysuru said that BNS has brought in significant changes in substantive criminal law, while retaining a substantial part of penal code ,1860. The BNSS, introduces on the otherhand,sweeping changes in the procedure designed to galvanise India's justice system through the imposition of strict timelines for various stages and aspects of investigation, enquiries, trial, judgements and appeals as also by the introduction of liberal use of the electronic medium to enhance its efficacy. It is victim friendly and gives opportunities to accused of fair representation. He discussed the chapterisation of the BNS. He highlighted that the problem of complicated and scattered chapters under the IPC has been resolved and discussed how the chapter five of the BNS consolidates the offences relating to women and children at one place, which were previously scattered under four separate chapters of the IPC. He also said that arrangement of offences is in the manner, which is easily understood to layman. All the major reforms, significant judgements in the past 75 years have been included in the BNS.

The Chairman of first session Pramath Adiga spoke on the occasion by highlighting that the change is not about mere changing the scheme of the Act but to include the perspective of a common citizen.

In the second session Sri H.D Ananada Kumar Retd., Public Prosecutor Advocate Mysuru while discussing the scheme of punishment, he said that earlier the shift was from Deterrent to Retributive, but now the change is from Retributive to Reformative. While discussing the implementation of this newly introduced punishment, he highlighted the six offences, for which the community service has been prescribed. Quoting from Mahabharata- "I know what dharama is, but I cannot walk on that path", he said that the socio economic condition and psychology of a person influences their criminal behaviour and he concluded by saying that time is the test for these increased punishments, as to how effectively they will reduce the crime, deterrence, alone, is not sufficient.

The chairperson of the program in the second session Sri Krishna Rao narrated the striking balance between over criminalisation and decriminalisation, stated that criminality is like gunpowder lying harmless in the gun, unless it is ignited by some external acts. He discussed some important deletions, such as section 377, 124A, 309, etc. In respect to over-criminalisation, he said that the hit and run matters, has been recognised and it is a laudable move that the same has been put under section 106 of the BNS and the punishment is enhanced to 10 years.

Few audience expressed their opinion about the workshop by conveying the effectiveness and knowledgeable information delivered by the speakers. The programme was dissolved with the vote of thanks delivered by Mrs. Anupama assistant professor, CBR National College of Law Shivamogga.

Awareness Programme on the Occasion of World Day against Child Labour

Date: 12.06.2024

The Institution had organized the World Day Against Child Labour to pay attention to the problem of child labour and to find ways to eradicate it. The day is used to spread awareness about the harmful mental and physical problems faced by children forced into child labour. “Let’s act on our commitments: End Child Labour” is the theme of World Day against Child Labour 2024, under this concept the institution organized an Oath taking ceremony. Prof. Dr. M. S. Sudhadevi, Principal presided over an oath taking event, ahead of World Day against Child Labour on June 12th 2024, here on Wednesday. The students vowed to refrain from employing children under the age of 14 for any kind of manual labour. They vowed to encourage children to go to schools and contribute their part in making the State free from child laborers.

The Institution also organized a crucial awareness program on child labour at Government Higher Primary School, CK Pura, Chitradurga with the aims to highlight the issue of child labour and raise awareness about its illegal and detrimental implications on young lives. The Program began with a warm welcome speech delivered by Dhananjaya of 4th semester 3 years LL.B. student. The program was inaugurated by Prof. Dr. M.S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga and other dignitaries on the dais through watering the plant. She delivered the inaugural speech and said child labour still remains a pressing issue in India, fueled by complex interplay of factors such as Poverty, Economic Pressures on Families, Lack of Quality Education, Lack of Child Labour Awareness, Conflicts and Mass Migration, Gender Disparities, Natural Disasters and Climate Change, Demand for Cheap Labour, Lack of Stringent Legislation, etc.

Smt. Dhanalakshmi Y, Head Mistress, Government Higher Primary School, C.K Pura, Chitradurga, presided over the program and said awareness programme was organized to educate communities about the adverse effects of child labour and the importance of children’s rights.

Dr. Ramesha K., Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga and other faculties of Government Higher Primary School, CK Pura, Chitradurga were present on the occasion. The program was concluded by vote of thanks delivered by Manjula, Teacher, Government Higher Primary School, CK Pura, Chitradurga.

A small helping hand from our institution to eradicate child labour which is the pressing issue and to ensure that every child can experience the joys of childhood and access the opportunities they deserve.

Report on Foundation Day Celebrations

Date: 15.06.2024

The Institution celebrated the Foundation Day to acknowledge the unwavering commitment, foresight and tenacity of our founder who shaped the very essence of our community.

The program was commenced by Sri P. C. Murugeshappa, Physical Education Director. Melodious song was sung for the invocation of the programme by Chaitra of Final Year 3 year student, which was followed by Oath taking ceremony. Dr. N. D. Gowda, Assistant Professor delivered the welcome speech on the occasion, which was further followed by Prof. Dr. M. S. Sudhadevi, Principal who gave a bird view of the college.

The traditional auspicious Lamp-Lighting ceremony as a tribute to Mother Saraswathi, the Goddess of Knowledge was carried by Hon'ble Sri Ron Vasudev, Hon'ble Principal District and Session Judge, Chitradurga and other dignitaries on the dais to symbolically inaugurate this program.

Dr. K. S. Kariyanna, Assistant Professor gave a brief introduction about the Hon'ble Sri Ron Vasudev, Hon'ble Principal District and Session Judge, Chitradurga. Then the inaugural speech was delivered by Hon'ble Sri Ron Vasudev, he said that, it is the day to celebrate the vision and mission of the founder to embark on the journey, to create a holistic environment where every student's aspiration of having accessibility to high quality education, life lessons and overall development becomes an inexorable reality. He also shared his success stories and the impact college activities and programmes have had on his life.

Hon'ble Sri Ron Vasudev, Hon'ble Principal District and Session Judge, Chitradurga was felicitated with Shawl, garland, bouquet, memento, and fruit basket.

The Chief Guest Sri S.J. Kumaraswamy, Additional Superintendent of Police, Chitradurga addressed the gathering and said Education in today's world is not just teaching and learning within four walls of a classroom. It is about creating awareness. And awareness is not only for the students, it is for the general public too. Being a responsible citizen and choosing to be in the dignified profession, it is all of your duty to create awareness of education whenever and wherever required.

The Chief Guest Sri Kumar Swamy, Assistant Superintendent of Police, Chitradurga was felicitated with Shawl, garland, bouquet, memento, and fruit basket.

Sri Fathyarajan, Senior Advocate and Vice-President, Saraswathi Education Society, Chitradurga addressed the gathering and said that coming together is a beginning, keeping together is progress; working together is Success. It is indeed this mantra of working together that have brought us where we are today. Collective work is the secret behind the progress that Saraswathi Law College has seen.

Sri H. Hanumanthappa, President, Saraswathi Education Society, Chitradurga and Former Member of Rajya Sabha the man of distinct vision and a fountainhead of illuminating ideas, an idol of knowledge and experience and inspiration to all addressed the gathering and said that the Foundation Day is celebrated to mark the resounding successful journey of 59 years. The celebration helped to foster a sense of pride, gratitude and unity among the students as well as the entire college community.

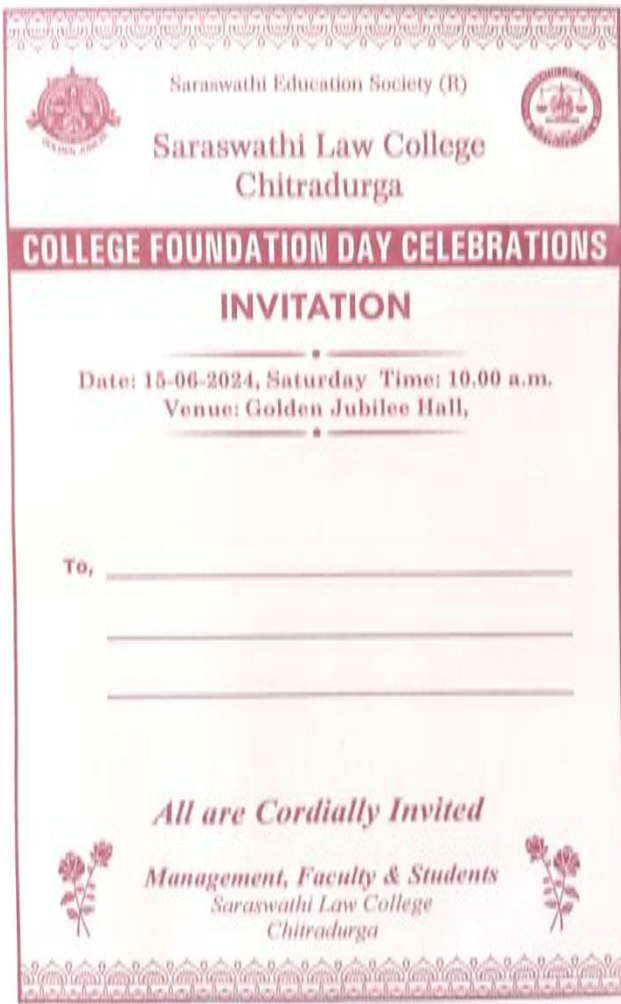

As all good things come to an end, "In ordinary life we hardly realize that we receive a great deal more than we give, and that it is only with gratitude that life becomes rice." Dr. D. B. Ravi Kumar, Assistant Professor delivered the Vote of thanks.

National anthem was sung in cores by all the people gathered in the programme to conclude the stage programme.

Everybody eagerly await this moment – the formal opening of Saraswathi idol. The Chief Guest and the entire visionary behind this endeavor, step forward in the Saraswathi Law College Campus to unveil the grandeur. As they march towards the Saraswathi idol we could see the sea of dreamers, visionaries, all united by one common dream. Everybody put their hands together as they pull the curtains off and the party blast was showered. The enthusiasm in the campus was palpable and watching the fruition of hard work and dedication was truly inspiring.

The ceremony was nothing short of spectacular! It was heartwarming to see so many smiling faces present on that occasion, reveling in this new journey of opportunities. Saraswathi shloka was sung by Bhoomika G. R. of 3rd year B.A. LL.B student. To bring this event towards its conclusion, token of gratitude was shown by recognizing all those who contributed their valuable time, immense efforts, and unwavering commitment.

Around 400 students gathered on this auspicious day and sought the fruits of the programme.

Report on Special Lecture on "Decline of Social Values and its Effects

Date: 08.07.2024

The Institution had organized a Special Lecture on Monday 8th July 2024 at 12:00 pm in Golden Jubilee Auditorium, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. The program was commenced by Sri P. C. Murugesappa, Physical Education Director, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. It began with the Invocation song sung in a patriotic mood by student Bhoomika G R and team. It was followed by Pledge taking ceremony carried by Sri P. C. Murugesappa, Physical Education Director.

Prof. Dr. M. S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga highlighted the bird view about the college, significance of the ceremony to students and welcomed the dignitaries and gathering followed by lighting of the inaugural lamp lit by the Hon'ble Justice Shri. N. Santosh Hegde, Former Judge of Supreme Court of India, Former Solicitor General of India and Former Lokayuktha, Karnataka and other dignitaries on the dais.

Smt. Harsha. S.M., Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga gave an introduction of Hon'ble Justice Shri. N. Santosh Hegde, Former Judge of Supreme Court of India, Former Solicitor General of India and Former Lokayuktha, Karnataka, which was followed by Inaugural speech.

Hon'ble Justice Shri. N. Santosh Hegde, addressed the gathering by informing the students when and where the prefix are to be used for the name and cited the Supreme Court case law which holds good regarding the matter. He also cited examples of specific cases where he witnessed corruption in administration from various forms of public services. "We cannot blame individuals because this fault lies with society. Earlier, there was social centralization of criminals; and role of families, parents and moral science education were significant in shaping our minds. But today, the social fabric itself has changed. Unfortunately, today's society respects only money and power, while honesty often takes a backseat."

"Only education cannot give value to the society. Our objectives and attitudes should also be good. When the students become employees in future, they should fight against the corruption. Corruption is rampant in all the four pillars of the Constitution like Legislature, Executive, Judiciary and Media. It's unfortunate that there are no serious discussions and debates in Parliament and Assembly. Our elected representatives have been spending time in meaningless debates or commotions. As a result, public money is being wasted", he said.

He reminded some of the major scams to have plagued our country for the past few decades and as to the huge amounts of public money that were siphoned off from administration. "Such people are not afraid of law. No one wants to bring about change and blame game becomes the order of the day. Where is democracy and how can true development happen in this kind of a situation? What is the way out of this to bring about peace and solidarity of the nation?" he left the question open to the audience.

He also spoke about the mining report that he authored which was released in 2011, saying his recommendations were not implemented by successive governments. "The only way out of this rut of ever-increasing greed is inculcating a value of contentment. Be content with what you legitimately have. I know a lot of dedication and determination is required for this. But once it is accomplished, any amount of temptation can be countered."

His talk was followed by a Q&A session with the audience, during which he suggested that to fight when the system itself is choked, people within and outside the system should be willing to change. "The time has come to reduce the number of appeal forums and thereby speculative litigation, which will result in quicker decisions by the Judiciary."

To another query about making policies more people-centric, he suggested, "Confine the Supreme Court for constitutional matters only. For policy matters a different forum should be created. Around 25 questions were posed by the students and all those were answered in a most zealous and patience manner by Hon'ble Justice Shri. N. Santosh Hegde. Further more questions from students were waiting in a queue, but due to time constraints it was necessary to end the program.

Felicitation was made to Hon'ble Justice Shri. N. Santosh Hegde by Sri Fathyarajan, Senior Advocate, Vice President, Saraswathi Education Society, Chitradurga, and Smt. D. K. Sheela, Senior Advocate, Secretary, Saraswathi Education Society, Chitradurga, with Shawl, Garland, Fruit box, Memento. Student Law Forum members also felicitated Hon'ble Justice Shri. N. Santosh Hegde with Shawl and memento.

Dr. K. S. Kariyanna, Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga proposed Vote of thanks. The program was winded up by singing National Anthem in chorus. More than 300 students were benefitted by this program.

Report on Awareness Program on New Banking Services

Date: 13.07.2024

The Institution had organized an Awareness Program on "New Banking Services" on Saturday 13th July 2024 at 12:00 pm in Golden Jubilee Auditorium, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. At present banking activities play an important role in day to day activities of every one's life mainly among college students. They require more awareness and knowledge with regard to banking transaction and banking activities. The program began with the welcome speech delivered by Dr. N. D, Gowda, Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. It was followed by the address by the guest.

The State Bank of India Representative had addressed the students and said "For a college going student, from the beginning of the admission i.e. at the time of online application they required to make online payments through e-wallets Google pay, debit and credit cards etc., and also for paying exam fees and for getting scholarship banking services are much important. Thus day by day they face a lot of problems with related to banking services and activities." He also narrated the different services provided by banks to the public and also assessed the awareness of college students of these services.

He further said, Banks provide security and convenience form aging money and sometimes allow making money by earning interest. Convenience and fees are two of the most important things to consider when choosing a bank. All banks have rules about how long it takes to access deposits, how many debit card transactions allowed in a day, and how much cash withdraw from an ATM. While Debit cards encourage more responsible spending than credit cards, they do not offer the same protection or perks to customers. He also said, to protect money from electronic theft, identity theft, and other forms of fraud, it's important to implement basic precautions such as shredding account statements, having complex passwords and only doing online banking through secure internet connections.

The program was concluded through proposing vote of thanks delivered by Bhargav Sen, student of final year 3 years LL.B. Around 280 students took the benefit of this awareness program.

Report on National Lok Adalat Court Visit

Date: 13.07.2024

Lok Adalat is one of the Alternate Dispute Redressal (ADR) mechanism and the members of Legal Aid Society, and Saraswathi Law College Students volunteered for the National Lok Adalat, 2024 which took place on 13th July 2024 in Chitradurga District Court Complex. The students had the opportunity to witness and learn in person as to how a Lok Adalat works.

The Lok Adalat's dedicated to property-related disputes. These cases encompassed issues like illegal occupation of someone else's property, causing harm to individuals or property, and instances where multiple individuals were involved in criminal acts under Section 34 of the IPC. The Lok Adalat, through its mediation and conciliation processes, succeeded in bringing parties together and reaching mutually acceptable solutions. This not only expedited the resolution of these matters but also contributed to the restoration of peace and harmony in the community.

Following the motor vehicle-related cases and property related disputes, the Lok Adalat also took up criminal cases which were compoundable in nature, involving sections 447, 323, 427, and 34 of the Indian Penal Code (IPC). These cases were diverse in nature and involved offenses such as trespassing, causing hurt, mischief, and damage to property. What stood out was the commitment of the Lok Adalat to encourage amicable settlements and reconciliation between the parties involved. Mediation and dialogue played a significant role in resolving these disputes, ultimately reducing the burden on the traditional court system.

The visit to the Lok Adalat provided valuable insights into the functioning of this alternative dispute resolution forum. It was evident that the Lok Adalat serves as a crucial pillar of our legal system, promoting speedy justice and reducing the backlog of cases in traditional courts. The emphasis on reconciliation and mediation in resolving disputes, whether related to the Motor Vehicles Act or property issues, was commendable. The Lok Adalat's ability to settle matters with fines, compensation, or amicable agreements not only benefits the litigants but also contributes to the overall efficiency and effectiveness of our legal system. We appreciate the dedication and efforts of the legal professionals and mediators at the Lok Adalat for their role in upholding the principles of justice and harmony. Students visit to the Lok Adalat was an enlightening experience, showcasing the significance of alternative dispute resolution mechanisms in our quest for a just and equitable society.

Everyone paid their respect and saluted the National Flag and sang the National Anthem with great enthusiasm, which was further followed by Dwaja Geethe sung with great pride. It was followed by speech by Sri H. Hanumanthappa, Former Member of Rajya Sabha and President of Saraswathi Education Society, Chitradurga, addressed in his speech that how India got Independence; it is the day when we got freedom from the British rule after many years of hard struggle by the great freedom fighters of India. It took sacrifices of many freedom fighters and several decades of struggle from 1857 to 1947. Finally the result of long years of struggle came in front on 15th of August 1947 when India got freedom. As we all know that Independence Day is an auspicious occasion for all of us. India's Independence Day is the most important day to all the Indian citizens and has been mentioned forever in the history. Independence brings in basic fundamental rights to all the citizens of this country; We all should feel proud of our Motherland; to be an Indian and admire our fortune that we took birth in the land of an Independent India; History of slave India reveals everything that how our ancestors and forefathers had worked hard and suffered all the brutality. We cannot imagine by sitting here that how hard they fought for independence from the British rule. He urged the students to be proud of their heritage and to contribute towards building a strong and prosperous India.

Prof. Dr. M. S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga, presided in the program. In her speech addressed the assembly about this great national event, she restated; we are lucky, that our forefathers have given us a land of peace and contentment where we can live without fear. Our country is developing very fast in the field of technology, education, sports, finance and various other fields which were almost impossible before freedom.

The program was well-received by the audience. The event concluded with the distribution of prizes to the winners of the State Level Youth Festival various competitions that were held at Karnataka State Law University, Hubballi. The Independence Day celebration at the college was a great success. They helped to instill a sense of patriotism and pride in the students and faculty members. The event also served as a reminder of the sacrifices that were made by our freedom fighters to secure our independence. The program concluded with a vote of thanks, and sweets were distributed to all the students and staff members. The event was well organized by the program coordinator Sri P. C. Report on creating Awareness about POCSO Act and The Prohibition of Child Marriage Act among school Children

The Institution Organized an awareness programme on POCSO Act and Child Marriage in Agasanakallu Government School, Chitradurga on 28th August 2024. The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012 for short POSCO Act and The Prohibition of Child Marriage Act 2006 is an important concept to be sensitized to the children, because Schools are environments where children spend a significant amount of their time. Awareness will ensure that children are protected from sexual offences at school. Educating students about their rights and how to recognize and report abuse can empower them to protect themselves and others

The programme was compared by Smt. Manjula. M. R, Social Teacher Agasanakallu High School, Chitradurga. It began with a warm welcome speech delivered by Sri Karibasappa. K, Hindi Teacher, Agasanakallu High School, Chitradurga.

The resource person of the programme was Prof. Dr. M. S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. She raised awareness on good touch and bad touch and highlighted the POSCO Act. She further informed that even the death penalty can be awarded for committing sexual crimes on children. Considering the gravity of sexual crimes on children, she exhorted the children to report such cases to the Parents or Teachers or the person whom they trust so as to bring a complaint to the police station to award stringent punishment to the perpetrators as per law.

Smt. Harsha. S. M., Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga addressed the gathering and said Child Marriage is a toxic that ruins young lives. Many a time, early marriages are done to bring child brides into forced household chores. This has a serious burden on young girls which leads to health, safety, bodily integrity and self determination issues. She also quoted that many are not even aware of the correct legal age of marriage for girls and boys. Thus, awareness within the community is very much required. She made the program more interesting by explaining how children and parents will be trapped to child marriage with a short story. She explained the topic by putting different examples. The children were also informed about child Help line-1098 and 112 and advised to report any case of child abuse or child marriage or any trouble.

Smt. Uma Maheshwari, Head Mistress, Agasanakallu Middle School, Chitradurga addressed the gathering and said that the child victim of sexual offence could be a boy or a girl both can seek a protection under POCSO Act and the offender too can be male or a female both can be punished alike. Regarding child marriage the law is armed with enabling provisions to prohibit child marriage, protect and provide relief to victim and enhance punishment for those who abet, promote or solemnize such marriage.

Sri Thippeswamy H. M. HeadMaster, Agasanakallu High School, Chitradurga delivered the presidential address and said that this awareness programme aimed to educate students about the laws and empower the children to identify signs of abuse or coercion and raise their voice against wrong activities made to them and be in a protective zone. He also highlighted that the parents and guardians should be aware of the provisions of the child welfare Acts in place for its effective implementation.

The programme was concluded by proposing vote of thanks by Sri Fayaz. K, Physical Education Teacher, Agasanakallu High School, Chitradurga.
