ALL INDIA BAR EXAMINATION PROCEDURE

The All India Bar Examination (AIBE) was conducted for the first time on December 5, 2010, by the Bar Council of India. The exam aims to assess a lawyer's capabilities to practice law in India and intends to set a minimum standard for admission to the practice of law in India; it addresses a candidate's analytical abilities and basic knowledge of law.

The Bar Council of India (BCI) awards a "Certificate of Practice" to advocates who clear the AIBE. The certificate will be mailed to the advocate's address within 30 days of the declaration of the AIBE results.

All students graduating from academic year 2009-10 onwards have had to clear the exam to practice law in India. There is no limit to the number of times you can appear for the All India Bar Examination.

In the event of not clearing the All India Bar Examination in the first attempt, you can appear for it the next time and clear it to obtain your Certificate of Practice. You can apply to take the All India Bar Examination only after you have enrolled as an advocate with a State Bar Council. There is no limit on the number of times an advocate can appear for the AIBE.

There are no benefits available for advocates in the SC/ST category who are attempting the All India Bar Examination

All India Bar Examination Syllabus - In details

The topics that are given in the syllabus of AIBE are explained below in brief.

Administrative Law - Administration of the country is carried out by the executive body and administrative officers. The power that they exercise on the public for an effective administration broadly constitutes the administrative law. Candidates will be expected to know about the different administrative bodies and such laws.

Alternative Dispute Redressal including Arbitration Act - When the parties involved in a dispute present their case to a neutral party. The neutral party is called the arbitrator. There are several judicial and quasi-judicial bodies that function on a given framework of law and constitution. Candidates should have the awareness related to dispute redressal bodies and laws.

Code of Civil Procedure - The two-part code contains 158 sections in the first part and the First schedule in the second part. The code of Civil Procedure governs the civil proceedings in India.

Company Law - This section includes topics which define the rights and conduct of organisations or businesses and the people associated with it.

Constitutional Law - Covers the laws in the Indian Constitution.

Criminal Procedure Code - Defines the procedure to be carried out in a criminal case and basically runs the whole system.

Cyber Law - The subject is gaining popularity as the world moves towards digitalisation. Deals with crimes related to the internet, cyberspace, etc.

Environmental Law - Covers law to regulate pollution, use of natural resources, protection of flora and fauna, international conventions, various agreements, laws related to environmental clearance, NGT etc.

Evidence Act - Also called the Indian Evidence Act, 1872.

Family Law - Deals with disputes between family members or relations.

Indian Penal Code (IPC) - It is the official criminal code of India and has been amended several times. This section also covers the supplementary criminal provisions of IPC.

Principal
Saraswathi Law College
Chitradurga

Intellectual Property Laws - This law protects the ownership of property. The property here includes both tangible or intangible assets, thus can be anything from art to real estate. laws related to patent, GI indication, etc are also covered in the section.

Labour and Industrial Laws - Defines the relationship or code of conduct between the employee and employer. Candidates are expected to be aware of the labour codes, recent labour reforms approved by the government of India, Norms and laws related to International Labour Organisation etc.

Land Acquisition Act - Governs the acquisition of private land for commercial or public utility. It also defines the compensation. One should be aware of the different legalities of land acquisition, supreme court guidelines and other laws passed by the parliament.

Law related to Taxation - Governed by the Income Tax Act, 1961. Further, it may also cover the tax reforms initiated by the Govt of India in recent times including GST.

Public Interest Litigation - Issues of public interest or mass interest. General laws related to the PIL etc.
