

Report on Awareness Programme on the occasion of 'National Legal Services Day'

Date: 09.11.2024

The Institution, had celebrated National Legal Services Day on 9th November 2024. This is to commemorate the enactment of the Legal Services Authorities Act, 1987 that came into effect on 9 November 1995. This National Legal Services Day plays an important role in the implementation of objectives through the process of organizing legal awareness programme, and other outreach programs. With this concept Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga in collaboration with Girls Junior High School and College, Chitradurga had organized the Legal Awareness programme on this occasion for 9th Std., students.

The Programme was commenced by Sri P. C. Murugeshappa, Physical Education Director, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. Sri Sandesh J.R, Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College was the coordinator of the programme who, delivered the Welcome speech.

The Programme was inaugurated by watering to the plant by Sri Kariyanna, Head Master, Government Girls High School, Chitradurga, and other dignitaries on the dais.

Sri Kariyanna delivered the inaugural address and said the most important objective of National Legal Services Day is to empower people to be more aware of legal rights and mechanisms for resolving disputes. It emphasizes that an economically disabled person should not be deprived of representation in court. On this very day, various arrangements have been made so that awareness is generated about free legal services and equal access to justice.

Smt. Harsha. S.M, Assistant Professor, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga said that the main purpose of this Awareness Programme was to sensitize the general masses, especially Children about the importance of Prevention of Child Marriages in India. She threw light on few provisions of Prohibition of Child Marriage Act 2005, by narrating a short story impressing upon the gathering especially Children and Women victims to come forward and approach various Legal Services Institutions for redressal of their grievances. She also apprised the beneficiaries about the free legal aid services by District Legal Services Authority and informing about the free helpline number 1098 and 112.

Prof. Dr. M.S. Sudhadevi, Principal, Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga had presided the programme. She explained that The Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act, enacted in 2012 in India, is a comprehensive law aimed at protecting children from sexual abuse and exploitation. It defines various forms of sexual offenses against children and prescribes stringent punishments for offenders. The act also mandates special procedures for the reporting, recording and trial of offenses to ensure the safety and well-being of child victims throughout the legal process. She further discussed about good touch and bad touch explaining in detail both and why is it important for every child to know the difference between both.

Then the Students of Saraswathi Law College performed the wonderful skit, which exhibited the Sexual harassment, Child Marriage and its effects, Dowry harassment, in a short span of time, which was marvelously presented and created Awareness for the audience. The skit was appreciated with a big applause by the gathering. The programme was concluded by vote of thanks. Around 50 students took benefit of the programme.

Report on Awareness Programme through Street Play and Procession on the occasion of “International Day For The Elimination Of Violence Against Women”

Date: 25.11.2022

The Institution had observed “International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women” on 25.11.2022 by the women Empowerment Cell, Girl Student Grievance Redressal Cell & Prevention of sexual harassment Cell at Saraswathi Law College, Chitradurga. This event was organized especially for First year students to create awareness as well as to gain knowledge on how they can prevent themselves from sexual Harassment of women at different places. Our Principal Prof. Dr. M. S. Sudhadevi, Physical Director Dri. P. C. Murugesappa, Assistant Professors Dr. N. D. Gowda, Dr. Srishyla. L., Dr. D. B.Ravikumar, Dr. Kariyanna K. S., Dr. Ramesha. K., Smt. Harsha S. M., participated in this event.

Totally 90 students and faculty members have actively taken part in this event. The students were taken to DC Circle through Procession and were made to exhibit the Street Play to create awareness on POCSO, Child Marriage, and Dowry Harassment. Finally, they took an oath on Elimination of violence against women and how they have to overcome from this silence, stigma, and shame surrounding it. Later, the public was addressed by the Principal, she said that Violence against women is a serious problem across the globe. Be it domestic violence, sexual violence or murder, women have to battle a lot of problems. They live in constant fear of abuse everywhere in the world. International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women helps us to talk more about the abuse and torture faced by women. As the world is moving on, we should create a safe space for all genders. Women should feel safe. It is high time that we come together and eliminate all kinds of violence against women. We celebrate International Day for the Elimination of Violence against Women to create awareness about this global problem. It is important to talk more about the ways to stop this violence and make sure that women feel free to talk about their problems. Finally, the programme came to an end and a photo session was arranged.
